marita crawled to a stop, her tail dragging behind her. around her, large dunes sprawled in every direction. marita fumbled for her phone and tried to get a signal ' no bars ' damn it ' she muttered. She slowly got to her feet ' ans began calling out ' Rose! Marie! Can you hear me..' she kept calling out, her voice fading into the distance ' before finally she heard a faint response.' marita ran towards the sounds before seeing a figure run towards her over the sand. as it got closer marita recognized the figure, it was Marie. marie reached her and the two girls hugged. Marie pulled away and put her claws on her knees.' where the heck are we? she panted. " i have no clue. I'm not getting any reception on my phone. and its hot. we need to find rose and get out of the desert.' marita said. _ the girls began wandering through the desert, calling out Roses name. Finally, they found her, sprawled out in a depression between a couple sand dunes. the dunes provided a small amount of shelter from the wind and was cooler than the surrounding area. rose had sand all over her, and looked miserable. ' what kept you girls? She said weakly. I've been trying to text you...' " Phones dont work out here ' marita said as she took a seat.

Flora wandered in a dazed stupor from the crash site. The events she had just lived through weighed heavily on her sanity, and she was struggling to keep from hyperventilating and shutting down. Her thirst was the only thing keeping her going. Then Mother Nature decided to add a sandstorm to help her keep motivated. Tearing a strip out of her nurse's outfit to cover her snout, she squinted her eyes shut and stumbled blindly through the vicious lacerating sand in no particular direction. the sandstorm soon blew its way over the desert and towards the depression where Marita marie and Rose were sitting.' the clouds moved rapidly over the desert and was boring down on them. ' What the heck is that?' Rose cried. " Its a sandstorm " Marita said ' a big one. we're not safe here. the wind will tear up the dunes on the one hand the temperature will drop a lot , on the other hand we'll be scoured by the sand and wind, it'll be like rubbing your face with sandpaper. not fun..' marita whipped out her phone again, praying to whatever deities there were to let her get a signal..' ok. ok! i have two bars..' bringing up the map.. ok.. down to one bar.. theres a town.. about .. 6 miles from here to the southeast. Bus- al' ghar. lets head southwest as quickly as we can..' marita turned off her phone- it had lost connection again anyway.' and she got up off her seat. ' that storm will be here in a few minutes. we need to move..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora continued stumbling blindly, until she couldn't take it and collapsed on the sand. Covering her face in her hands, she tried and failed to keep what felt like gallons of sand from filling her lungs grain by grain. And then it was over. Flora looked up in shock. Because she stopped moving, the sandstorm passed over her, leaving her buried up to her neck in a brand new dune. "Ahhh!" she gasped in surprise, then grimaced when the coarse sand filled her mouth instantly. Spluttering angrily she wiggled and thrashed and freed herself inch by inch. She was more sand than folf when she finally freed herself.

Her face felt badly sunburned and her nails were splintered raw from clawing free from her burning prison. So she kept walking, wishing with every step she had procured a less-tight outfit in her escape from Kalis' warship. The trip was survivable only due to it being twilight, the sweet spot between the parched daytime and frigid night. Nevertheless after what felt like an eternity her footpads were raw and her tongue was swollen from thirst. This might be the end... her heatstroked brain thought with alarming calmness. Saved from Kalis only to feed the vultures...will vultures even find me? I'll probably just be a skeleton if they do, there's nobody and nothing for miles...These thoughts were suddenly dashed from her mind when with wild shock she realized there was something up ahead. Glinting in the fading afternoon light, she made out curved rooftops and gleaming steeples...a town?Is it a mirage? she thought with wonder. Is it delirium? It didn't matter. Increasing her pace with reckless fervor, she sped towards her only hope of getting through the approaching night alive. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Aug 11 2015, 10:57 PM

Marita and the others had only made it a few hundred feet before the storm had hit them, despite the wind, searing sand and low visibility the trio slowly made their way towards the southwest. the storm blew over finally after what seemed like hours. all three were covered in sand, blood dripped from scratches in their face, and was absorbed by the sand that clung to their fur. finally, the outline of a city appeared on the horizon ' Bus Al ' gahr' marita said, relief in her voice. ' we'll just find an inn, there and crash for the night. Hopefully they'll have enough creds.."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora could hardly believe it when she stumbled into this unknown city and the buildings didn't melt away in the wind. "It's real!" she breathed in shock. "A real city!"She dropped to her knees, tearing up in relief. Then she got back up almost as quickly because the stone tiles paving the road were still blistering hot.Hobbling to a cheap motel called The Oasis, Flora approached the register and silently hoped the clerk spoke English. "Please, can I have a room tonight?" she begged. "I don't have any money but I just survived a sandstorm and I'm so tired! I'll do anything, I'll wash dishes, I'll work off my debt! Just one night!"

the clerk- who was a camel- looked at her and sized up her attire.. ' well you do look like hell. tell you what. ' we will have some guests checking out in an hour or so. once they check out i'll give you a room. For now,the dining room is open. so go grab yourself some food and drink, you definitely look like you need it. i'll charge the cost to your room bill." the clerk said ' your name please?' he said pulling out a book, and flipped it open to an empty page.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"My name is Flora..." She mumbled, only realizing afterwards that she should have given a fake name, as she clearly wouldn't be able to pay her room bill. "Thank you sooo much...I promise I'll work the debt off somehow, just let me know anything I can do around the hotel..." She glanced at his nametag, but it was written in the Arabic alphabet so she didn't know how to pronounce it. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Aug 12 2015, 11:02 AM

Flora " the camel repeated, writing it down on the ledger. 'welcome to The Oasis madam. i'll let you know when the room is available. Masad over there- he motioned to a parrot perched on a perch. ' will show you around the hotel.'- marita and the girls entered the city. leaving tremkks of sand mixed with blood on their wake. ' marie tried to wipe some of the sand off of her, her throat was dry and every time she coughed sand dribbled out of her mouth. 'wh-where to, Marita" Marie wheezed." i dont know' Marita said. " Just look for an inn, any inn will do." rose was wipeng her face fre of the sand, all three of them looked like something out of a zombie flick.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Thank you..." Blushed Flora, crossing over to the Mcaw. This wasn't the service she expected from an Arabian hotel, she'd always heard that on this side of the world business was full of haggling and nitpicking down to the penny. But she couldn't well be scammed if she had no money. Maybe he had a crush on her...Or the Mcaw's going to knock me unconscious and steal my organs, she thought, but she didn't care. She needed somewhere to sleep. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Aug 12 2015, 12:43 PM

follow me please' the Macaw said in a thick Arabic accent " the dining room is this way. sample as you like, your room will be billed once you finish and enter it. Unless you are expecting friends? But no matter, that is between you and them.' the macaw entered the dining room and guided the folf to an open table, the room was about a quarter full of guests, mostly camels altghough there we a few dogs and human families as well, all dressed n local attire. they paid little attention to the newcomer, and NMasad paused at a open table ' please sit here. theres water in that pitcher."- marita looked around the street, it was late now anmd she was exhausted . for the last 15-20minutes or so they had been looking for anything that looked like an in, but with no luck.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora looked with alarm at the food. She couldn't pay for the room and was certainly skipping town, not to mention she was starving, but she suspected that they would hunt her down and kill her if she flaunted her bill before dashing. Not to mention the food was bringing up uncomfortable memories about Titus... "Ummm, maybe I'll eat later, but right now I just kinda want to shower and fall asleep." She rubbed her sunburnt arms and winced. "Also, maybe some Aloe Vera, if that exists out here..."

Nick22

after stumbling around the city some more. Marita spotted the sign for the Oasis and led the girls inside. Rose dug into her dress and pulled out her creds card ' a room please' she said looking at the clerk ' If you have rooms available." the camel opened the book, ' how many are checking in?'- 3 Rose said . the camel swiped her creds card then handed it back to her ' i have a guest who is looking for a room, but has no money. would you mind, letting her stay with you? i cannot afford to eat the cost of a room and meals if she has no money to pay..- well.. rose sighed ' it depends on who that person is.. ' Her name is Flora. outsider, looked really beat up. i'm having the bellhop show her around..'- Marita started ' Flora? wait.. how did she.. nevermind. we'll let her stay with us once we find her. I'm Marita, That's Rose and Marie."_ sign your names here ' the clerk said, handing marita a pen. Marita put her name in, then handed it to Marie, who signed, then Rose completed the trio. " room 18 will be available in 20 minutes' the clerk said ' just up the stairs to your right._ the rooms should have supplies in the bathroom ' the macaw replied to Flora.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"ohmygodohmygod thank you!!!" Flora rushed into the air-conditioned, carpeted room and collapsed on the only bed. She sighed loudly and contentedly as she sank into the fluffy covers and a small pyramid of sand trickled out of her dress and onto the floor at the base of the bed. She almost fell asleep right away, but the aforementioned sand was giving her rashes in almost every joint. Spurring herself back to her feet with Herculean effort, Flora staggered into the bathroom and shed her clothes immediately. Running the bath as hot as it went, she sank into the bathtub and sighed as the water pooled around her and coaxed the grit out of her fur. You're welcome the macaw said before the door was slammed in his face, and he turned to head down the hallway when he saw three female dogs walking towards him. they were silently counting the room numbers. " Excuse me sir" said one of the dog ' we're looking for room 18 , please." " well its this one. its well occupied. i just had a guest named Flora inside..' Yes.. shes.. staying with us, for the evening " Marita said.' ah.. excellent.' Masad said, unlocking the door with a master key, and letting the girls in.' call downstairs if you need anything. good night ladies ' he said' closing the door behind him, and headed down stairs.- the sound of the bath running was audible, but the girls were more interested in settling in. there was only one bed, but it was a large one, enough for 3 people, or 4 if the squeezed in tight. marie brushed off the sand flora had left on the bed as best she could, the three of them were sandy as well. Rose got a garbage bin and place it on the ground and one by one the girls wiped as much sand and grit off their dresses and out of their fur and into the garbage. between the 3 of them, they filled the bin nearly halfway once they were finished. ' yuck ' Rose said looking at the mess in the bin, ' cant believe all that was on me..' marita took off her dress, and set it on a chair, ashe triered to lie down on the bed but there was still a lot of sand in her fur.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora used the entirety of the little complimentary bottles of shampoo, conditioner, and body lotion. She scrubbed every inch of her body until it was raw, then lathered herself in soap and shuddered in pleasure as the stinging dulled her nerves and let her mind off the sand rashes. She soaked a towel and pressed it against her calloused feet, scrubbing her paw pads until they were swollen with water. Occasionally she'd change the spigot to cold water long enough to take some long deep draughts; it was the greatest water she'd ever tasted. Almost an hour later she stumbled out of the bath, took one look at the towels and muttered, "fuck that I'm going to sleep." Opening the door and walking into the bedroom, she noticed with abject shock that were three people on her bed and fell over with a spooked "Yeep!!!" hi Flora' rose said from the bed as she heard the door open and saw a nude hot pink folf come out. ' i see you managed to cross our path again..I'm Rose, if you remember. "_ could you put a robe on please? Marie said ' not that i dont admire the feminine form- you've got a good sized bust, by the way- but usually you cover your goods when coming out of the shower.- marita looked at Flora. " hey Flora. dont worry, we're not going to kick you out of here. you'll be sharing this room with us for the evening, which includes dinner. don;t worry, we've got enough creds for all 4 of us to get a meal in us.. since right now I'm very hungry- don't know about you" she said. 'we're just resting for a bit after trekking through that sandsquall. we basically filled an entire garbage can, with sand from out outfits.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I huh I ju uh I whu you whu huh?" Flora babbled, wide-eyed and fur standing on end. "How did where did what did you doing here?" She scrambled to her feet in surprise. "I'm sorry, I just didn't think anyone would be in here!" she stammered, blushing and covering her privates. "Especially not you three!"She grabbed the towel from the bathroom and quickly wrapped it around her waist. "How did you get here?" she asked, nonplussed. "Where did you come from???" Marita got up from the bed and headed over towards Flora. "we got stuck in the desert, and wandered our way into town. Wasnt fun, AT ALL as for getting in here ' she waved a room key at flora this is our room.. well its your room too, we're sharing it."-Rose got up from the bed and headed towards flora." Don't be afraid Flora. You're safe with us ' She said giving Flora a smile.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I mean of course I'm safe but I just didn't expect I mean I was in a warship and you were all gone and I got the shit beaten out of me and then Lily healed me so I guess I wasn't alone but I thought everyone else was gone forever and now you're here and--" Flora could not stop babbling, her hysteria from the desert was reasserting itself.

Nick22

rose put her claws to floras shoulders' come on Flora relax..' she said softly, and repeated the request as the babbling folf went on and on about torture chambers , and people getting their heads blown off and terminal velocities and explosions and various other ramblings, and rose finally cut her off by kissing her. Roses dark red lips found Floras dark red lips, and the great dane slipped her tongue into Floras mouth. both marita and marie were surprised by Roses move, they hadnt expected her to kiss Flora, on the other hand, the folf had been rambling on and on and on about all sorts of weird stuff and perhaps talking her mind off of - whatever nioghtmare she had been through was a good move.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"--Ulp!" Flora's ears perked and whatever she was saying died as the Great Dane slipped her tongue into Flora's mouth. Her eyes widened as Rose's tongue scraped against her own, and she felt a warm feeling throughout her abdomen as she finally got to experience a genuine kiss. The sudden tonsil hockey was such a surprise that for some time Flora could only stand stock still and reciprocate. But as Rose explored her mouth, she grew more bold, and reached to cup Rose's breasts. Flora shuddered as she ran her fingers along Rose's soft skin. Without her hands to hold it up, her towel unraveled itself and fell to the floor. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Aug 15 2015, 03:44 AM

Marie got up off the bed and headed towards the bathroom, giving Rose and flora a wide berth. ' Since you girls are, um, BUSY, i'll go take a shower. Hopefully there'll still be hot water left in there. I'll leave some hot water for you marita, I promise. Assuming theres any..'-alright' marita said. ' i'll .. look out the window and try and get a glimpse of where we are.. don't worry about the water, a bath is a bath at this point too me, i could care less if it is lukewarm..' _ rose felt Flora touch her breasts and she moved her claws down floras side, brushing off dirt and grime floras bath hadnt reached . Floras fur was soft to the touch, and so was her lips. Rose began to massage Floras tongue with hers more forcefully, and moved in to press her body against Floras. tan and pink breasts bounced off each other', and the scent flora was giving iff was becoming more powerful. rose had had many sexual experiences at the electric sheep, and she was starting to get into her routine, firstly subtly rubbing her breasts against her partner - in this case Flora-, the next step would be kissing her partners breasts.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Hands shaking, Flora slid her hands down Rose's dress and dug her fingers into Rose's butt. She pushed her tongue into Rose's mouth, but her legs were shuddering with excitement and she let Rose remain in control of the speed and flow of the foreplay. Her erection, freed from the towel, pressed itself against Rose's stomach, the light brush causing the folf to moan loudly in pent-up anticipation. Nick22

rose felt the soft rub of Floras member against her stomach, slowly she let flora work off her dress and undies, revealing her goods to her. for another few minutes Rose grinded her body against Floras feeling her move her hardening part down towards her privates ' it was then Marita cut in' ok, girls thats enough. don;t want you spreading goo all over each other. she said firmly ;' Rose pulled away with reluctance, breaking the kiss and panting heavily. ' better now?' she said to Flora in between gasps.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's nerves were on fire as Rose let her remove her clothes. She hungrily watched as the Great Dane presented herself to her, the first time somebody met Flora halfway towards consummating. She could hardly believe it, her mind was cooking up a thousand different ways Rose might be about to pleasure her...Then Marita ground it to a halt. "We're...we're stopping?" She exclaimed. "But I'm...so horny...I feel like I'm about to explode!" Desperately she grasped for Rose's arm as the Great Dane pulled away, but she was too slow and was left alone standing in the middle of the hotel room shaking all over.

Nick22

flora, if it were solely up to me, we'd be still going' Rose said ' but i promise you, soon, we'll finish what we started. you're a heck of a kisser, and i enjoyed this little romp.. just.. get your clothes back on, and settle down for a bit. we'll kiss again later, i promise ' she said giving Flora a smile.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora felt incredibly pent-up. "I...uh...okay..." As her excitement forced itself to simmer down from the peak of anticipation, her body was racked with a turgid fullness that dropped her to her knees. It was a feeling she was familiar with (after all, her sex life has been an endless series of getting blue-balled at the last minute), but she'd never had it this intensely before. She saw fuzzy shadows in the corner of her vision, and had a brief moment to reflect on how tired she'd been before the events in this hotel room...she realized she was running entirely on rapidly-fading adrenaline right now...Her vision faded, and before she knew it she collapsed face first into the carpet. Rose sighed as she bent over to pick up the unconscious folf ' should have let us finish marita the girls been holding back a lot of tension.." well rose i didnt want to see a hump show- that i didnt pay to see' Marita smirked,' or wasnt involved in.' ' jealous, girlfriend?' Rose said, a smirk running across her face. ' hey, we're not married after all, i can have sex with other girls- and guys if i so choose..' you've had plenty of it Rose, that was your gig after all.' marita said 'you want a piece of this? marita said, holding the unconscious - and naked- Flora up so marita could see all of the folfs features ' wait.. ios that a.. ' yep. she has working breasts AND a pecker. so, conceivably, she could get you pregnant and you would still be a lesbian. course i'm not sure what you call it ' a dolf- or dog -wolf marita said ' but shes part fox... a fodolf, fox-dog-wolf..' Rose said.'but why are we even discussing potential kids..?'- because she has a working male part. she can impregnate us, while i cant get you pregnant or vice versa. cause of that we possible rose.. we'd have had 4-5 kids by now..' ' we'tre not in any financial position to have a family Marita, we barely can afford what we've got, and we have Marie pitching in. 'If Flora stays with us, that 4 girls helping out.' Maria replied. 'She sighed ' put her n the bed, i'll go see if theres any smelling salts in the bathroom. _ Marie was soaking in the tub, which was discolored from all the sand and grime she was washing off of her ' the bottles of shampoo were empty, so washing her fur and cleaning it out wasn't an option.' theres no shampoo in here' she called out ' So Flora used it all' Maria said as she went through the drawers in the counter. 'Is Rose still french-kissing her? 'Marie asked "no, i made her stop. it was getting pretty heavy.' rule of thumb at the electric sheep was, you never stop people making out, you let them finish first. To do otherwise was bad form. naughty naughty Maria ' Marie said . 'did you ever make out with Rose Marie while you worked together?" no, although we had noticed a mutual attraction between us. i thought she was beautiful, and she admitted to me that she thought i was lovely. we did kiss, though, a couple weeks after we started, after we clocked out for the night, in one of the 'private' rooms. a couple tongue rubs, a few boob squeezes, and that was it. she went downhill really fast and i was switched to bartending. if she hadn't been hooked on bupropion, i think we would have had sex at least a few times. but her breath was terrible and she owed me quite a bit of money. a quarter of her paycheck, before the place burned down. you rescuing her quite literally saved her life, she was going to get fired if she didn't straighten up. and since had nothing else going on i followed you. You've become quite the friend Maria. I can see why Rose loves you.' Marie said.' so how do you feel about me? Maria asked ' well.. I.. love you' Marie admitted."i know you and Rose have a history but..' well i think Rose is going to be quite busy tonight with Flora, so.. theres going to be some you and me time.' Maria said as she finally found the smelling salts.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora didn't resist as she was placed on the bed. Her passed-out slumber was heavy and dreamless. Her body was a bit slower on the uptake than her mind was, however, and she was still very clearly in the later stages of sexual excitement. Slowly her state graduated from unconscious to semi-conscious, and her mind was filled with lucid dreams of an intensely emotional nature. Mumbling incoherently in her sleep, she turned her head back and forth and occasionally moved her legs in a running motion, quietly questioning and conversing with unseen entities. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Aug 17 2015, 09:33 AM

Nick22

Maria came out of the bathroom and came over to the bed . she reached out and reached the smelling salts under Floras nose= or tried to, as the folf was tossing and turning. ' hold her down Rose, shes half-asleep and moving too much for me to give her the salts..' _ Ros pinned the folf down with both paws, her paws sliding up and down her body as the folf turned underneath her ' Maria finally managed to get a good shot of the vapors under Floras nose.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Mmmm....mph?" Flora mumbled sleepily. She tried to stretch out, and looked with unfocused eyes at nothing in particular as she slowly returned to consciousness. "I uh..." She realized with alarm that she was being pinned down in a bed by two naked women.

"Oh...uh...hi...good morning?" She was still rather discombobulated and wasn't 100% sure she wasn't still dreaming. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Aug 17 2015, 01:11 PM

Nick22

Morning? you've only been asleep for maybe 15 minutes' Rose said a smirk nonetheless on her face. i've.. talked Marita her into joining when we resume our romp.. ' you ever been tag-teamed before? i have, nothing beter then getting frenched by one person and fondled by abnnother at the same time.. so.. whjat do you say?' she smirked.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I..." Flora didn't dare herself to speak. Her flytrap was figuring things out quicker than her brain and was quickly rising to the opportunity. "...yes, okay! Let's do that!" She looked with equal parts eagerness and disbelief at the ample supply of female flesh suddenly presented to her. Is this it? she wondered in a daze. Am I FINALLY about to lose my virginity?

Nick22

marita and rose got up off of flora, allowing her to rise up off the bed. ' marita i'll kiss flora then you start to fondle her. after 5 minutes, we'll switch positions. do whatever you want to her from behind. we'll be exploring a lot of each other..' Rose said " well i promised marie she and i would have some fun time while you and flora made out. ' alright, i see. we'll just have you kiss her then, maybe some foreplay tops. Maries really interested in you then?" shes interested in you as well rose' marita sad as she moved behind Flora.' she told me that personally."- Rose kised flora on the lips and threw her arms around her neck mArita wrapped her arms around Floras waist and pressed her breasts into the small of floras back.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora gasped in surprise as she felt Marita's breasts rub along her back. Almost as quickly she barely had time to react when Rose's mouth was against hers again, causing her breasts to rub against Flora's. So many breasts... Flora rubbed her tongue against Rose's, still playing it safe so as not to risk doing anything to cause it to end prematurely. The sensations were indescribable and left her panting with anticipation.

Nick22

Rose and Marita made love to Flora with passion throughout the night and the hours pased swiftly. marita was the first to stir the next morning and got out of bed." _ Marita changed into fresh attire and wenmt into the tooms kitchen to throw together a quick breakfast.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora continued snoring loudly from the tangled mess of bedsheets inhabiting the space between the bed and the bathroom wall. Marie, Rose and Marita had been able to get a spare blanket ordered via room service and share the bed for the night.

Nick22

Rose stirred from bed, and found herself entangled with flora in the sheets. the memory of what they had done last night, the foreplay in tandem, and the exploring of every inch of floras body by her, came back to her in a flash.. Rose had mated with Flora first, or rather Flora had mated with her. rose had sensed that flora was holding in a ton of repressed desire, fortunately finally mating with someone had allowed much of that to be released. after the first first nervous , unsure of folf and Great dane , Rose had become the partner several more times during the night, until finally she had switched to marita. Rose sniffed the air and recognized the smell of cooking food. she looked over at the far end of the bed, Marie was still fast asleep. "Must be Marita cooking them , she said groggily.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

When Rose moved, she lightly brushed Flora, and the folf instinctively scooted further away from her and tumbled out of the bed, taking the sheets with her. Her head banged against the wall and she ended in an upside-down pose on the floor that left her neck in a crooked position under the bed. But still her only response was an abrupt snore and some subconscious wiggling to attempt in vain to free her trapped hands from the restraining sheet. Eventually she finally woke up from the feeling of both arms and a leg having fallen asleep. "Huh?" she muttered, temporarily trying to remember how she got where she was. "How did I...?" She remember the desert, the warship, and lots of painful walking. She had gone through more exertion in the last 24 hours than anything she'd ever experienced in her 17 years of life. Even now, the last night was something of a blur. Until she remembered that there women involved. "Rose? Marie?" she started, finally succeeding in freeing herself from the sheets and stumbling to her feet. All of her extremities began tingling something fierce. She realized the girls were in the tiny hotel room kitchen. "Hello?" she mumbled, wandering into the kitchen. "What did...how long was I asleep?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Aug 22 2015, 11:07 PM

look who finally woke up' Marita said turning and looking at flora, and a smile came on her face.' you've been asleep for nearly 8 solid hours, its almost 11. and congratulations, you're no longer a virgin. you did say last night that you had never had relations right/ well now you have, and i'm curious? how are you feeling about that?_ rose was sitting at the small table drinking a thin cup of coffee' care for some coffee Flora. i dnt drink coffee much but today i'm drinking some.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I'm still exhausted...and starving..." Flora murmured sleepily in response to Rose's first sentence. "The desert really did a number on me yesterday..."And then Marita continued talking. Flora's eyes flew open in shock. "Wait, we did--? We had--?"She racked her brain wildly. "I can hardly remember last night!" she exclaimed. "Everything's a blur past the part where I staggered out of the desert!" She looked in a panic around the room, then at her flytrap, then back at Marita. "I really....we really...What did we do??? I'm...not a virgin any more?" A mix of every possible emotion flowed through her at once and left her head spinning in shock. She almost fainted. And slowly little tidbits came back to her. Taking a shower...passing out...smelling salts...someone rubbing breasts on her... "I...must have been so tired I...can't remember the sex at all..." Flora realized slowly. "How long did it take? What happened?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Aug 23 2015, 09:11 PM well in total we had sex for at least 4 hours, a couple 3ways but for the most part it was you and rose.' Marita said. ' basically we did everything, french kissing, breast licking, blowjobs, you name it, we did it. for your first time, you did really well. you fell asleep almost immediately after we finished.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I...I got...you gave..." Flora's mouth hung agape. "Four hours...?" She stumbled back to the bed and sat down, grabbing herself by the head try and counteract an intense dizziness that overtook her. "Holy crap..." she breathed. "I lost my virginity for four fucking hours and I can't even remember it?" She felt a little sick to her stomach. "How many times did I cum?" she asked, flopping backwards onto the bed and only then noticing how damp it was.

Nick22

quite a few times, considering you mated with rose and me several times. you were pretty submissive, and i say that as someone who is pretty submissive in bed' Marita said. ' don't need a blow by blow recap' Marie said ' i'm trying to eat breakfast here. anyway whats the plan for when we leave this place?'- the girls needs a reminder Marie, she doesnt remember hardly anything of last night, and the ' first' is always special.' rose replied.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Christ..." Flora muttered quietly, staring blankly at the ceiling. She couldn't believe she'd slept through her first sexual encounter, and a threesome no less. "I don't...feel any different," she admitted. "I mean, maybe it would have been different if I'd actually remembered it, but being a not-virgin kinda feels exactly like being a virgin..." She got up and the blood rushed to her head. "God, I'm starving," she realized. Grabbing a plateful of the breakfast Marita had cooked, she scarfed it down in huge gulps and quickly realized it wasn't going to be enough. "I'm heading down to eat the complimentary breakfast," she announced, grabbing her robe from the floor and cinching it around her. "Thanks for making food, but I'm going to need a lot more than what this hotel room had in the mini-fridge."

just leave us some food when you're done' rose replied we'll be down in a few minutes after we finish eating up here..'- marita wolfed down her food and put her plate away. truth be told, she had enjoyed the previous night, pity flora didnt remember it, because Marita sure did.- marie poured herself a glass of milk and nursed it.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora rushed to the dining room to make maximum use of the complimentary breakfast. She poured mix into the waffler, put two bagels into the toaster, and started brewing a cup of coffee. The first thing fully prepared was a bowl of shredded wheat, and she consumed it hungrily while waiting for the hot food to finish. She had just returned her hot items to her table and was dipping her knife in a butter packet when she was approached. "Excuse me, madam," the waiter interrupted her, coming up to her table with an apologetic look. "We recieved a complaint from another table as to how you ate your food." "You what?" Flora stopped, halfway through buttering her bagel. "Who?" "The Breakfast Club would like to ask that you use proper manners when eating." The waiter motioned to the table. "They're offended that your fork and knife are not placed to the left of your plate, and your napkin's not in your lap." Flora blinked and looked around the room. "I'm sorry, where are they? There's nobody else here." "They're eating in another building. But they're still offended that anybody could dine without the same ettiquette standards that they follow," the waiter explained. "We really must insist. No more spilling drops of milk on the table either." Flora wiped up the milk, placed her napkin in her lap and straightened her silverware in the correct spots, still confused. "Is, uh, that good? Why are they getting a say in how I eat?" The waiter bowed his head. "That should suffice for now." He departed, leaving Flora nonplussed and with cold food.

Nick22

Marita, Rose and marie soon joined flora down at the breakfast wing. Rose grabbed some hot oatmeal. while Marie and Marita grabbed bagels and juice. ' this place has a decent spread' Marie said coming back to the table with her plate full of food. the girls had a collection of juices and milk for their drinks, all laid out in prim and proper order.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Hiya!" Flora waved the girls over to her table. "Over here!" She downed the rest of her breakfast and instantly got much more cheerful than she'd been since entering the hotel; a bit of the original Flora was shining through thanks to finally being fed and rested. "What should we do now? Let's explore the town! I've never been so happy to be alive; I'm going to do everything I want to!"

Nick22

let us finish eating first, then we'll go exploring " Marita said " But at least you're excited. me, i'm just going to enjoy these waffles. didn't have much to eat yesterday, or the day before come to think about it."- I'm interested to seeing how far we are from the next town. This town seems to be very small ' Rose said as she drank her milk. Marie was munching on a muffin.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Okay!" Flora bounced in her seat. "Just don't eat too messy though, or we'll get in trouble. Like, BIG trouble. I don't really understand it, must be a culture clash or something." She grabbed a banana and bit into it without removing the peel. "We should see if they have any strip joints!" She said excitedly, talking with her mouth full. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 1 2015, 01:34 PM

Nick22

Strip joints? this is Arabia, Flora they don't HAVE strip joints ' Rose said. ' very conservative area you know.. and this is a small town anyway from the looks of it. we'll just look for the local bazaar, and see what we can find. just don't buy whatever you set your eyes on.. we don't have tons of creds to our name after all, and we have to stretch things between the 4 of us.."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora stuck her tongue out. "I don't have any credits period!" She looked down at her bathrobe. "But I'll definitely need a change of clothes." She wracked her brain for any knowledge of Arabic fashion and fell only on American stereotype. "Ooooh, can I get a burqa and a whole body dress? I want to fit in with the locals!" She clapped her hands in excitement.

Nick22

' i don't think they have burqas around here' Marita said ' we'll get you something.. something.. you'll be able to see out of ... we'll go shopping in a few minutes ' she said as finished eating her breakfast.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Okay!" Flora slumped down in her seat. She was already bored of breakfast, with their rules. As the girls continued to eat, Flora caught herself zoning out observing the patterns of the tabletop. She realized that her foot was on someone else's. Rather than withdraw it, she playfully danced it up their leg, tickling them with her toes and wondering if they'd say anything with the others around. She suppressed a giggle, trying to gauge from their expressions who she was playing footsies with. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 7 2015, 10:35 PM

Nick22

Marie smirked as flora fiddled with her toes.' you still have a lot of sand inbetween your toes' she said to flora ' and you need to clean them.' she added, as she pushed her feet against Floras. she finished eating and pulled away from flora ' alright girls ! Lets go shopping!" marie grinned.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Hey!" Flora giggled. "It's not my fault Marie was hogging the shower. Though if she's interested, I'd be game to share it with her next time..." She leaped up. "Let's go shopping! Lead the way Rose!"

Nick22

Hmm.. so you want to.. bang in the shower?' a smirk spread over Marie face, her red lips parted in a smile' well Well.. Alright, after we finish shopping you and i can have some fun.. Consider this your first 'real' experience, since you dont remember last night.. Anything goes, lets say..." She finished as sje got up and headed for the opening which lead to the hotels entrance.' so whay sort of stuff would you like Flora/ as a souvernir from this place?

LettuceBacon&Tomato

A grin spread over Flora's face at the idea. "Okay! Yeah, that lines up with what I was thinking...I think I still consider myself a virgin. After all, if you don't remember your first time, it doesn't really count right?"She looked at the city. Most of the buildings were unmarked. "Do you think they have a clothing store in this town? I really want to check out the local fashion." She glanced again at her small bathrobe. "Are you sure they won't stone me for showing my ankles or something?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 13 2015, 06:22 PM

Nick22

no, this isnt the 700s ' Marita said as she followed Marie out ' they dont stone you for nor covering up. now if you are completely naked and prancing around, they do take offense to THAT. so, keep your clothes, and we wont have to run out of the town ducking rocks.." _ i'm just looking for a good change of attire ' Rose said ' something thats affordable..'

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora tightened her bathrobe to make sure it didn't show anything. "Okay," she nodded in agreement. "Are you guys going to pay for my clothes? Cause unless they accept labor, I don't have a lot to offer."She stepped outside. The ground was hot and gritty, but her pawpads were adequately calloused from her prior trip through the desert that she could barely notice.

Nick22

Of course we'll pay for your clothes- within reason- Marita said as they crossed the street ' did you bring any with you, or was it just the stuff you had on?_ i'm thinking something simple for the 4 of us . nice.. but not too expensive' Marie said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Just that horrendous nurse's outfit...it didn't even fit." Flora pulled her hair out from inside the collar of her robe. "My last real outfit was back in Cairo. Man, it's hard to believe that was just over a day ago..."

Nick22

well all we have is what brought with us. so a fresh set of clothes for all of us is needed. we'll try and keep them under 200 creds each, or 800 creds max.' Marita said " so try and find something for yourself Flora that you like that isnt too expensive..- they walked around the town, looking for a good clothing store, but most of the stores jut sold fruit or baubles..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"That should be fine!" shrugged Flora. "How much could a burka cost anyway?" After twenty minutes of wandering without luck, Flora's feet were starting to burn. She looked around for pedestrians. "Let's just find someone and buy their burka. Hey you!" she waved at a lone female walking down the sidewalk. "You there! Can I buy your burka? I'll give you 200 credits for it! Oh, and your shoes!" she remembered, shifting her feet uncomfortably.

Nick22

the woman gave flora a dirty look and shouted something at her in Arabic before walking rapidly away.. clearly she was not interested in selling her her burka..- just get to a store Flora and stop pestering onlookers! ' Rose said. finally they found a clothing store which sold various local attire.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"The hell's her problem?" Flora folded her arms and scoffed. "That wasn't even a lowball, I was overpaying!" She followed Rose excitedly into the clothing store. "Oooh!" she jumped in excitement. There were clothes of all sorts. She immediately raced around the store grabbing anything that tickled her fancy. "Where are the changing rooms?" she asked the cashier brightly. She looked at her three comrades. "Anyone want to share a changing room?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 15 2015, 11:04 PM

Nick22

there is only one changing room per gender. this is a small store the cashier said '; you will have to take turns.' she aded pointing to the back of the store. the female changing room was on the left, the males on the right. " you can go first' Marita said kindly to Flora. i still have to find something in a blue color. _ marie picked out a purple dress and Rose a light green one.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora scampered into the back and later busted out the door wearing this: "What do you think?" she beamed. "I look so elegant, and it's only 6 thousand dinars!" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 18 2015, 01:00 AM

Nick22

6000 dinar? rose said. whats a dinar?' its the local currency, its about 1/1000th of a dollar' Marita said 6000 dinar equals 6 bucks. since there are 10 creds in a dollar.

6000 dinar is about 60 creds. we can easily afford that. Nice find Flora.' the totals for the 4 girls dresses came to 450 creds, with Marita and Maries outfits going for 100 creds each, and Roses costing 190.' the clerk gave the girls bags to hold their dresses, and the girls left the store ' so where do you girls want to go next? marie asked. " back to the hotel?

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I'm hungry again!" announced Flora, leaving the store and flaunting her new outfit to the the first pedestrian she saw. "I don't think the hotel does free lunch, we should go to a restaurant! Maybe Mediterranean," She thought about the concept. "Is it even possible to go to a Mediterranean restaurant when you're in the Mediterranean? What do the locals call it?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 20 2015, 11:42 PM

Nick22

we're in a desert. the Mediterranean is hundreds of miles to the wst of us- and in any event we dont have the creds to go eat a fancy dinner ' we have.. ' marita ran some up an app on her phone ' we have 3050 creds left. so we are going to have to stretch that money as far as possible..- well if they are in dinars ' marie said thats only a few creds'

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Hey, it's your money, beggar folfs can't be choosy folfs," Flora shrugged. "But I really need to pee, and I kinda want to eat, so pick something." She crossed and uncrossed her legs urgently. "Though I can just find a bush if push comes to shove. I'm good with anything, honest!" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 20 2015, 11:54 PM

we'll get lunch back at the hotel. we'll have enough creds to gran some pita bred or something.. now' i'm in a frisky mood.. why dont we go back to the room.. Maries f voice dropped to whisper and she leaned towards floras ear and have a nice long kiss?

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes lit up. "Okay!" she whispered right back, unable to keep her voice from cracking in excitement. Quickly she followed the dog back to the hotel room and wasted no time in sprinting into the bathroom.

Nick22

Marie closed the bathroom door behind her as she entered. ' well flora.. girl today is your lucky day' she said in a confident voice as she strode towards the pink vixen, her eyes focused on Flora , gazing at the pink shawl the folf was wearing, which completed every part of the folfs pink body except for the dark red of her lips, which were as crimson as Maries own. maries purple attire moved as she approached Flora. what do you say we have a 'little.. show and tell' first' she said, as she wrapped her claws around flora and ensconced her in a hug. Marie's claws slipped under Flora's shawl, her left claw stopping at her bra the right moving down her back towards her tail. Marie was almost nose to nose with flora, their lips achingly close together yet far away from a kiss.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora was halfway to the toilet when she saw Marie striding towards her non-too-subtly. "Ooh, are we...?" Her eyes widened, and she had barely a glance at her previous objective before Marie's hands were on her. Flora gasped as Marie cupped her breast and another stroked her butt. Already? "That's...really fast," Flora smiled quickly, placing her hands on Marie's chest and gripping with an excited shudder. I can pee afterwards... She wasn't going to miss her first sexual encounter where both partners were fully conscious. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 21 2015, 06:59 PM shall we do this here, or wait until we get in the tub ? Marie said and she began working off Flora's bra with her claw and she felt the folf begin to fondle her breasts. " And do you want tongue to start off, or not? Two questions to answer i guess. ah.. what the hell lesss talk, more liplock' she leaned in and kissed flora on the lips the red lips locking together as the girls began undressing each other. Marie slipped her tongue into Flora's mouth.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora trembled with excitement as she slipped Marie's bra. She was already hard even before Marie had slipped her skirt off. "W-Whichever..." she stammered, unable to take her eyes off Marie's crotch. "T-tub would be nice..." And then Marie's tongue silenced any further words. Running her hands down Marie's flank and grasping her butt, Flora fought to keep her excited panting from interrupting their makeout session.

Nick22

Marie finished undressing flora, revealing her lower body, and climbed onto her, feeling her body against her, her murmurs smothered by Flora's lips locked with her. Marie wrestled with her, each girl for a moment atop the other, the cold floor sending a brief shiver down Marie's spine. Marie ended up atop Flora, her eyes gazing at the folf's face.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora blushed instinctively as her remaining clothes were removed. Quickly she pulled Marie's pants until they slid to the ground and the two were fully exposed to each other. But Flora didn't have long to ogle before Marie was on top of her, locking lips and leaving her nether region's very close to Flora's...Then they switched places and Flora found herself straddling the Golden Retriever. Shimming forward, Flora dug her palms into Marie's breasts and shoved her erection between them. Her every fiber yearned to start thrusting, but she wanted to give Marie a chance to look at her womanhood. "You'll be gentle...right?" she flushed bright red. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 29 2015, 12:26 AM

Nick22

Ah.. so you have both male and females parts ' Marie said, looking at Floras member, now resting against her breasts " well you arent alone there, a lot of girls who frequented the Sheep had both. we didnt care, so long as they paid, actually Rose said they paid her the best for sex. Oh.. and as for being gentle..' marie leaned in and pressed her nose to Floras breasts ' as gentle as you want baby. you've got a good package. and i'm expecting .. a couple deliveries ' she said, and began to lick Floras breasts.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I, uhh, I mean," Flora stammered, trying to figure out how to politely note that female-wise she had secondary sexual organs at best, but her explanation died in her throat as Marie's smooth breasts slid back and forth across her erection. Any intelligible words turned into a high-pitched moan and she peaked her back, closing her eyes and focusing on the sensation of Marie's gentle caress. As the dog's tongue scraped across Flora's nipples, the folf shuddered and dug her claws into the bathroom carpet. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 29 2015, 07:53 PM

Nick22

marie liked Floras chest for a few minutes then gradually began to make her way up towards Floras mouth, kissing her neck throat and chin, before finally locking lips with the folf, and caressing Floras tongue with her own. Marie slid back on the carpet, her claws gripped at Floras tail, murmuring as she french-kissed Flora. as she did so her nethers now stretched below Floras.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora panted heavily, her nerves overstimulated, her muscles felt coiled and ready to spring. Marie's hands, tongue, and breasts were all rubbing Flora at once, and Flora felt extremely hot...She felt a flash of deep dread when she felt contractions bubbling up from within her abdomen. Not already! With a strained cry, Flora arched her back and gritted her teeth as she rode out an intense orgasm, splashing all over Marie's front. The intense feelings seemed to last forever, her entire lower body tensed up as wave after wave of pleasure stripped the energy from her. "I'm...sorry..." she panted, dropping to her knees and looking with alarm at the mess she'd caused. "It was just so...intense...I...couldn't control myself..." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Sep 29 2015, 09:18 PM well. thats what the bath is for . Cleanup ' Marie said Floras exertions clinging to her fur, as she goit up and climbed into the bathtub before turning on the water.' how hot do you want it?' She asked Flora with a smirk.

Nick22

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora staggered to her feet. "Hot's fine," she said, distracted. She tried to harden up again was was still limp. Her legs felt like jelly. "I'll do better next time...just got a bit excited..."She blushed, embarrassed. She hadn't wanted to orgasm before even penetrating Marie, but her brain just got os excited at the prospect of imminent sex...Is there something wrong with me? she wondered bitterly. How could I screw that up right at the finish line?

Nick22

don't be embarrassed or beat yourself up" Marie said to Flora' you're new at having sex, so you'll make mistakes. thats why its good to have someone to practice mating on. usually you have a girlfriend to teach you such things, but i'm guessing you didnt have that .' Marie grabbed the soap bar and began cleaning herself of the goo. ' don;t worry, once I'm cleaned off. I'll make out with you until you're ready to try again. shouldnt take me more than a couple minutes. by the way flora you have a very nice form. good sized breasts, soft kissable lips, everything a girl could want in a girlfriend.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Okay..." Flora flushed red, stumbling into the shower. Her breasts were B-cups, she always thought they were small, but Marie was presumably better equipped to make that call. Grabbing the shampoo, she started lathering Marie's hair. "You're really hot too. Very large breasts...I was just wondering...how many sex partners have you had?" She asked the golden retriever shyly. "If you don't mind me asking." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Nov 22 2015, 05:39 AM

Nick22

Quite a few. I did work in a strip club after all. Did both boys and girls, although truthfully the one I had the most hots for.. was Rose.' Marie blushed as Flora worked the shampoo into her hair." Girl's really hot, sad thing is she had a bad drug addiction at the time , which really made her a pitiable wreck.biproxytol is a real nasty drug, it can easily kill you if you take too much. Rose got lucky, one, that I was around to keep her from ODing, and 2, Marita managed to get her out of there.. in case you are wondering which gender I prefer. well, would I be swapping tongue with you, if I like guys more?' marie smirked.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora smiled nervously. "Why don't I count as a guy though?" she asked. "You know...I was born a guy. That's why I've got a...flytrap...and all. I'm not really a girl..."

Nick22

breasts, mannerisms, fur color, all the features of a girl-minus the malehood. from my experience, theres a spectrum of what we in the business called 'co-sexes' or bi-sexes. people that have both gender parts. many of them tend to chose their feminine side, and act on that. you are acting on your female side,so despite your male rod. you are a female. thus this sexual encounter between us is counted as homosexual not heterosexual. So.. ; marie reached forward with her paw and strioked floras breasts '

you ready for round 2?

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora smiled as Marie explained why she was really a girl. It was nice to hear confirmation from someone on that front. Then her hand flew to her mouth when Marie groped her and offered a round two. "Already?" Flora looked down in shock as her flytrap slowly answered Marie's question for her. "I didn't...know guys could be ready to go again so quickly..." She started stroking Marie's breasts and pressing closer. "Sure..." Flora purred.

Nick22

" it doesnt take much to get guys aroused." marie said leaning over and stopping the water. that done, she felt Flora fondle her. marie leaned in and kissed flora passionately on the lips, slowly easing her tongue into the folfs mouth. marie wrapped her arms around Flora and began to straddle her their privates inches away from touching. marie felt Floras member get harder and harder.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora shuddered as her erection pressed into Marie's stomach. If it weren't for Marie's tongue filling her mouth she'd already be panting again. Taking charge, she pushed her own tongue past Marie's and explored her lover's mouth. Her hands slid around Marie's waist and straddled her buttocks. Her mind raced as she wondered what the Golden retriever would do next...

Nick22

marie murmured as Flora began to kiss her back passionately and felt the folfs tongue deep in her mouth. she broke the kiss a stream of reddened saliva falling into the tub as their crimson lips separated. ' you're good ' Marie said, feeling floras stiffness just below her belly button. i i think its time for some suckling ' she smirked , as she moved down floras front towards her breasts ' marie opened her mouth wide and pressed it to flora right breast, taking in as much of the breast as she could and began to suckly hard on it.' She murrmured as she did so feeling the tension between the tw lovers, as floras members slipped close to her privates.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora gasped as Marie's lips closed around her breast. Moving forward, she pressed Marie into the shower wall and rubbed her erection against Marie's crotch. Sliding her hands down Marie's sides, she gripped her lover's waist and excitedly attempted to penetrate her. She grew slightly concerned when she had trouble locating the opening. There it is...I think? Her mind raced as she felt mostly sure she'd just slid in. "Am I...in?" she asked, blushing at having to ask what felt like a stupid question. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Oct 13 2015, 01:34 AM

Nick22

No..Not, not yet..' Marie said pulling away from Floras breasts, lipstick stains circling Floras tit.' here ' she pressed against flora and felt her member slid inside her up to the shaft, and tensed ' NOW, you're in " She grinned to Flora staring slightly downward at her , marie was a couple inches taller than the folf. Marie panted ' How do you feel?

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora gasped with shock as she felt a distinct increase in pressure. She was in! Grasping Marie's butt for support, Flora stood there quivering, letting the warm dampness of her partner's nether regions rub all around her member. Slowly she began sliding in and out, her breathing grew heavy and she couldn't keep embarrassingly high-pitched yelps from punctuating her thrusts. Eyes wide, she stared in a state of shock at Marie's bobbing breasts, hardly believing she was actually having sex with someone. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Oct 26 2015, 08:34 PM

Nick22

Marie kissed Flora passionately feeling the folf's member moving back and forth inside of her. she grabbed on to Floras sides and pressed her breasts to floras moabibng as the kiss continued. _marita and Rose were looking at a local map, trying to find a place to head to next, after Mare and Flora got don with their ' shower' ' well we're running low on ceds so we'll have to find something of value to barte with , with the 4 of us ' Rose sighed as she loked at the map

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora returned the kiss, simultaneously panting with embarrassingly high-pitched gulps. Her nipples pressed into Marie's breasts and her eyes were squeezed shut as she focused on the feeling of ramming Marie's pussy again and again. It felt awesome, but Flora was secretly worried that she wasn't going to be able to finish. Her backside was distractingly cold from being outside the shower stream and her legs were feeling like jelly from supporting her weight while keeping her balance. Think sexy thoughts... she tried to will herself to orgasm. Think of pornos...big, muscled naked men...imagine we're fucking in a big, sleek, powerful car...She glanced at Marie's face, lips still locked with hers. For a moment, her mind tried to imagine Marie was Emilena, but that made things more awkward than sexy. Pretty soon her panting slowly edged away from husky and more into exhausted. She kept slipping out on accident. "It feels...really good," she moaned truthfully, gulping desperately for air and pausing momentarily to splash hot water on her butt. With a flash she realized she'd slid out and quickly jammed it back in. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Oct 29 2015, 08:53 PM

Nick22

'I'm glad you are enjoying it' Marie said pausing for breath as Flora slid out again. she gripped onto the fofs rear and tensed, it was cold to the touch.' what do you say we finish in bed huh..' she smirked before feeling the folf reenter her and felt florass lips relock with her. marie felt secretions drip down her leg and mixture of hers and florass from the sex they wee having. marie broke away from flora and smiled. so, want me to blow you/ she panted.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's heart skipped a beat. "B-blow me? As in..." her imagination filled in the blanks. "Yes, let's do that!" She gave her lover's breasts one last squeeze and quickly stepped into the stream for one last drench of hot water. Shaking herself off like a dog, she grabbed towels and handed one to Marie. Drying off quickly, she winced as the fabric scraped against her chafed privates, but the rawness wasn't enough to dampen her excitement at trying something new. Walking into the other room, she blushed as she realized she was flashing Marita and Rose. "Hey girls," Flora smiled shyly. "We're, uhh, taking the fun to the bed, if you two are okay with that." I guess it's nothing they haven't already seen... This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Nov 3 2015, 02:46 PM

Nick22

we were wondering when you two would finish' Marita said with a smile ' just finish having sex in 15 minutes or so, alright. we're headed towards the next town. its 12 miles away so it's going to be quite a walk..'_ Marie turned off the water and drained it, seeing tuff of pink and tan fur float towards the drain. she got out and dried off herself off a bit with the towel.. She folowed Flora back into the room, covered only with a towel.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"That's cool," said Flora, barely registering what Marita said. She was far more interested in Marie's half-naked form walking into the bedroom. With barely-restrained excitement she laid down in the bed and spread her legs wide, shivering in anticipation. Her erection had returned to throbbing full mast.

Nick22

care to join us/ mMarie smirked to the other girls. ' i'm thinking after she and i tae turns sucking each otherm, that you two could join in. we'll take turns doing her.. but for now.. this bitch is mine to bang.' marie smirked threw her clothers off and climbed onto flora. she moved her mouth close to floras face then moved it down towards her privates finally hooking onto floras member.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora couldn't help it, and let out a throaty groan within seconds of Marie's lips making contact. Stiffening her legs and digging her nails into the pillow, she panted heavily and couldn't resist watching with wide eyes as Marie worked her magic. She smiled weakly at Rose and Marita. "Yeah, you should come join us..."

Nick22

marie moaned, as she continuerd working on Dlora, the bed creaked as Marita and Rose climbed onto it, both looking intently at Flora. time to start some foreplay' Rose smiled, and she reached out and touched Floras right breast. Marita fondled her left. feeling good? the pair smirked.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Yes..." breathed Flora. "Feels good..." She stretched her legs and shuddered as Marita and Rose stimulated her other erogenous zones. Her breathing grew heavier and that series of embarrassingly high yelps started as she got more and more sexually excited. If this keeps up, I'm going to cum so quickly...

Nick22

rose lerned in and kissed flora fully on the lips, while marita put her mouth to Floras breast. marie pulled away coughing as she left a trail of saliva on floras member." girls/' She was going to blow me next! she complained as she saw mmarita and Rose busying themselves with Flora.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora felt Marita's lips press into her nipple and Rose's tongue enter her mouth. Curling her toes and rolling her eyes back into her head, she panted raggedly as her nerves overloaded with sensation. Suddenly she felt it building up inside her. With a high-pitched squeal she dug her nails into the bedsheets as her orgasm crested through her and shot all over Marie's face. marie gasped as flora released on her. damn girl, you were really pent up' she said getting off off the bed and going into the bathroom to clean off her face. rose pulled away from floras mouth, a string of reddened saliva falling away as the dark red lips broke apart. rose moved down to suckle on Flora right breast, and both great danes suckled on her for a few minutes. rose and marita then kissed, their dark red lips locking together near Floras breasts

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora panted languidly, her tongue lolling off to her side and her chest heaving contentedly. "That...was awesome..." she panted, eyes half-lidded and cheeks rosy red. As Rose and Marita continued working themselves out over her body, Flora decided to get in on the action. Reaching around both of their backsides, she fondled both of them and watched them make out hungrily, focused on the minute differences in their curves.

Nick22

for the next 15 minutes Marita and Rose made love, using Flora like a rug, grinding back and forth across her stomach. the girls were more interested in each other then noticing that flora was fondling both of them during this. finally Rose broke away, fluid from her and Marita dripping onto Flora " wow.. its been aawhile since we did itlike that.._ since college if memory serves Marita said as Marie came back into the room ' Done having fun. Then lets check out..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora had taken the time Rose and Marita were using her as a prop to recover from her orgasm, and was capable of hoisting herself to a seating position. "How long's it gonna take you girls to pack?" she asked. "I've got literally no luggage, Imma just chill here on the bed and watch TV till it's time to go." After roughly fifteen minutes, she was languidly surfing through dozens of Arabic-speaking stations in a fuguelike trance, tongue lolling flaccidly down her jaw as genres and actors and graphics sped by all punctuated in a rapidfire tongue she couldn't understand. So when an English-dubbed commercial came on, she immediately stopped flipping channels despite it appearing to be a generic pharmaceutical infomercial. Genetics is the backbone of our humanity, it began, showing a 3D representation of the double helix. Our society flourishes and our species controls the world solely due to our genes. At Sartonic Labs we are dedicated to the preservation and study of humanity's finest blueprints. Shots of photogenic scientists working with complicated and microscopic machinery. We've accepted genetic material from the finest human specimens across the world, and have spent billions of dollars unlocking the theoretical limits of the human body, and making those limits a reality. "Woah..." muttered Flora, watching the biopic with glazed-over eyes. "They pay people thousands for their genetic material...hey, you think they'd want mine? I mean, my body's absolutely amazing! Perfect in every way." She didn't feel like mentioning it was due to her having the psionic power to gradually adjust her phenotype; she didn't want her new friends with benefits to turn on her like everyone else did when they learned she was a freak. marita soon packed and the girls left the room and checjed out.(several hours later) the four girls reached the outskirts of the city, which was bigger thanthe one they had been in ' Look for a place to spend the night ' marita said to Flora.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora panted loudly, staggering into the new city. But her mouth opened even wider when she glanced in awe at the sprawling metropolis in front of her. This city was far more industrial than the previous, and Flora felt a tremor of nervousness even thinking of trying to barter out a room...after all, she didn't even speak Arabic, and she couldn't count on getting another impossibly nice hotel clerk like last time. "So, like, for the time being we're probably gonna sleep in this alleyway," she finally admitted to Rose, Marita, and Marie after a few fruitless hours of trying to ascertain what the hell various signs were trying to say. "It's not claimed by any of the gangs, at least none that I've seen. And you can flip the dumpster top over and shield yourself from the rain, in case there's any of that." She fished a metal pipe out of the dumpster and used it to fish through the contents, looking for anything interesting. "Any idea what direction Sartonic is?" she asked the others. "The sooner I can donate genetic material, the sooner we can have enough money to afford a hotel room." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Dec 5 2015, 02:35 AM

we have enough- barely- for a cheap motel ' marita said." i'm staying in some alley. anyway..' she gathered up her things and walked down towards a stall. '[come on. we're not spending the night in some dingy alley.' she pulled out her phone ' the nearest hotel is 5 blocks down on our left..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

When they reached the hotel, Flora asked the clerk, "Do you have a map of the city?" She tried to give a polite blush, but her nervousness gave away that if she didn't find a form of income, they would probably be unable to pay their hotel tab upon checking out.

Nick22

there's a map over there ' the clerk said after the 4 girls sighed in ' room 63, it's up the stairs' he said handing Rose the key.- come on Flora let's go take a peek' marie said to the folf.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora walked over to the map. She could see the city and many different routes, spindly roads and alleyways with Arabic writing everywhere. She was only able to recognize Sartonic Labs due to the recognizable insignia under their name; a circular eye with a horizontal line through the middle. Grabbing a piece of paper out of the hotel printer, Flora sketched the route as well as she could. "I'm going to head there now; can't waste time when we'll be broke if tomorrow rolls around and we want to buy another night," she told Marita. "Can I have some money to buy food on the way?"

Nick22

no, we're coming with you. you'd get lost otherwise ' Marita said ' besides we're running low on creds as is. we have enough for one night.. and.. well that's about it..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Okay!" Flora led the way down the street, skipping merrily. After a few hours of being hopelessly lost, she somehow managed to wind up at the Sartonic Labs. It was a towering building with white marble walls and a scarcity of windows. "Hiya!" she beamed at the receptionist. The receptionist looked at her with an air of condescension. "Can I help you?" "Umm yeah, my name is Flora, and uh...I saw your advertisement on TV." The folf shifted her feet uncomfortably. "I was thinking of trying to qualify as a donor." The receptionist tossed her a datapad dismissively. "Fill this out and you'll hear back from us within one month." "A month? But--!" Flora's protest died in her throat when the receptionist, who was wearing a nametag saying 'PILAR', shot her a glance of pure ice. Resigning herself to the possibility of future income, Flora began filling out her personal information. Until she hit a snag. "Ma'am? My species isn't listed in the dropbar." Pilar cocked her glasses. "What? What's your species?" "I'm a folf," Flora smiled weakly under Pilar's unfriendly gaze. Pilar narrowed her eyes. "Folf don't exist." "Not normally, no..." Flora answered, "but neither does pink fur or...uh...other weird things about me." Pilar took the datapad back. "Are you genetically modified? How old are you? And why..." she suddenly frowned, "Why did you mark 'sperm sample'?" "Heheh, that's...uh...the other thing..." Flora blushed. Pilar masked a look of alarm and sat up. She looked over Flora, silent for several seconds. "I, uh...need to go in the back for a moment." Flora looked at Marita with bemusement as Pilar left them in the waiting room. "What was that all about?" she asked the Great Dane.

well you're.. unique.' marita said as she wabed a few creds ' they pay people wh refer donors hee too. so we've got a few creds to ourse;ves. let me take you out to dinner. My treat?' she said with a smile.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes brightened up. "Sure, that sounds love--" she abruptly cut off when the receptionist burst back out of the door. "Miss Flora, you've been fast-tracked to the front of the line! If you come with me please." Without another word, the woman grabbed Flora and led her into the inner recesses of Sartonic Labs. The receptionist led Flora down a pristine white hallway filled with tinted windows. She finally opened one of the labs, where a tall raccoon in a business suit motioned to a seat in front of the center table. "Hello, I'm Dr. Van Der Merwe. Please, sit down," he ordered congenially. Flora acquiesced, staring around the room in awe. The walls were dotted with storage lockers, gestation chambers, and various gleaming chrome machines. Van Der Merwe tried to refocus her attention on him. "Are you comfortable? Could we get you anything to drink?" Flora nodded eagerly. "Ooh yes, please! Do you have juice? I'm parched from all the walking!" The receptionist nodded and left the room, and Van Der Merwe discussed the task at hand. "Miss Flora, you did an admirable job filling out our questionnaire, but you must understand we still have some questions about your unusual appearance. The scanners reported no indication of gene therapy or augmentations in your body." "You scanned me?" gasped Flora. "Where? When?" "As soon as you walked through our door." Behind Van Der Merwe the receptionist briefly returned, handing Flora a chilled can of cranberry juice. So Flora told the doctor everything he wanted to know. Starting with her early life as a male gray wolf, to the time in boarding school that she started developing the mental ability to alter her appearance, to redesigning herself as a pink-furred female and fleeing her old life out of fear of prejudice. "Very fascinating..." breathed Van Der Merwe, jotting notes down on his clipboard the whole time she spoke. "Untrained psionic manifestation...that's a rare occurrence, especially for a non-gecko." Flora gave an awkward smile. "So...do I qualify to donate sperm?" "Even better." Van Der Merwe handed her a map of the facility. "We'd love the chance to be able to analyze you on a more permanent basis. We have private apartments in our staff quarters and we're prepared to offer you a rent-free room. Food, utilities, and various recreations are included." For the last one, he pointed out a gym, pool, and indoor garden on the map. "In return, you'll agree to a series of tests we'd schedule at regular intervals, focusing on various aspects of your mental, physical, and genetic state." Flora looked over the paper, mouth hanging open and thoughts swirling through her head. "I understand if you need some time to think about it--" Van Der Merwe started, but Flora immediately interrupted him with "Where do I sign???" * * * "Hey girls!" Flora exclaimed excitedly, bursting into the waiting room. "Guess where we're sleeping tonight?" She excitedly showed them the map of the facility. "Sartonic says we can live with them while running a bunch of tests on me!" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jan 3 2016, 02:47 AM how much are they paying you? marita asked Flora, as marie and rose followed her down the hallway ' i'm hoping you get a good amount of creds. goodness knows we need it." she said taking a look at the map- the facility was quite larged and was designed to fit in with the natural surroundings.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I get a weekly allowance of 500 credits", replied Flora. "Not much, but considering it comes with free food and water and electricity, I can spend it however I want. Or save it up for the future. Credits are worth a lot more out here."The receptionist handed Flora 500 credits. "Here's an advance for this month," she said. "Your room will be ready by this evening. For now, would you and your family be interested in dining at our food court? Tonight's special is Vietnamese.""I told them you were my family so you get to live in my apartment with me," Flora whispered under her breath as the receptionist pointed them in the direction of the food court. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jan 3 2016, 02:33 AM

Nick22

Fa,ily huh? well it gets us a place to stay for awhile.' marita shrugged ' so 500 a week, thats 2000 a month , 24000 a year. not bad, considering we dont have much creds right now ' she added as they walked down the hallway ' so what sort of tests are they running on you?'

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"All sorts, apparently," Flora replied as they reached the elevator, a glass-covered gilded pad that hummed powerfully as it rose up the stories. "Running, reflexes...more sciencey stuff like blood samples, IQ tests...they really want to know everything about my..." Flora trailed off. She'd never admitted her psionic powers to the girls. "...about what makes me look the way I do. But they promised that none of the tests are harmful. They aren't gonna cut my brain up or anything."Following the map, they reached their new apartment on the fourth floor near the futuristic ice machine. Everything was equal parts elegant and practical; the floors were padded with waterproof luxury carpet and the furniture looked easy to clean but was composed of high-quality plastics. A curtained transparent aluminum window showed a breath-taking view of the bustling city below.The apartment came with a tiny kitchenette, two bedrooms, and a living room with a plushy couch that Flora immediately collapsed on after shedding her outer clothes. "Ummmm..." her tongue lolled happily and her chest rose up and down, covered only in her bra. "Maybe we should just order room service tonight...I think I'm too comfy to go to dinner right now..." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jan 3 2016, 10:02 PM marita took off her shirt tossing it aside ' hmm. room service .. can wait she said as she climbed onto the couch next to Flora..' Because' she grinned. " you and i are going to be a bit busy' marita's dark red lips parted in a smile and she looked at Flora's dark red lips' playing tonmsil hockey. she suddenly leaned in and kissed Flora on the lips, feeling the folks soft lips locked with hers. Marita's breasts bounced against Flora and the girls began settling into the kiss.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes went wide as Marita climbed on top of her. "Oh!" She returned the kiss happily, reaching over and unclasping Marita's bra so her breasts could hang free. Fondling her excitedly, Flora passionately stuck her tongue into her lover's mouth. "Mmmm..." Within seconds, her underwear wasn't doing a very good job of hiding her excitement. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jan 3 2016, 10:17 PM marita reacted to Flora taking off her bra by reaching under the flog and unhooking her bra in return. she began to massage Flora's tongue with her own vigorously, moaning softly as she did it. with her left hand she tossed Flora's bra and with her right began to caress Flora's right breast. she moved her body slightly so she was directly over Flora feeling the folks' panties slide against her thigh as she did so. Marita kissed Flora passionately with her mouth open, nibbling slightly on Flora's lips as the kiss became more passionate.

Nick22

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora panted excitedly as Marita fondled her and reciprocated with all her energy. Grasping Marita's pants, she unbuttoned the waist excitedly and slid them down to the Great Dane's knees. Hands trembling, she rubbed Marita's inner thighs and spread her own, sinking deeper into the plushy recesses of the couch.

Nick22

Marita broke the kiss briefly and slid her pants entirely off, revealing her panties to Flora "good, you're enjoying this. I owe you after all from that bet in Lanthae. so, now you'll get to have what you said you wanted back then. Your balls in my mouth. Course, here i'll be doing so willingly. VERY willingly' Marita smirked as she took off Flora's soaked panties, revealing the folks' erect penis.' well well someone is very excited. But first.. " Marita put her lips to Flora's left breasts and began to suckle her.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"You're going to...?" Flora could hardly believe her ears. Before she could digest what Marita was about to do, the older woman was stimulating her again and she moaned in surprise. Arching her back as Marita suckled her, Flora presented herself completely to her lover, allowing her to do whatever she wanted.

Nick22

Marita suckled on both of Flora's breasts, using her let claws to stroke Flora's tail and squeeze her butt ' mmm. soft and squishy' marita murmured as she moved to floras right breast.' you've got nice tits too, dear Flora.. i'm going to enjoy having you in me.. Marita felt the folf getting more and more excited with each stroke each kiss- marita spaced out her suckling with some kisses , kissing flora passionately on the lips.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora returned the kiss, chest heaving with sensitivity at the amount of attention Marita was giving it. "Mmm, keep talking dirty to me..." she purred, grasping Marita's buttocks and pressing her whole body against hers. Running her fingers up the Great Dane's flanks, she savored the sweat-soaked fur running through her fingers. After so many years of never being close to anyone, this was more than she ever could have dreamed for... This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jan 6 2016, 03:44 AM marita began micving her mouth down floras front passet her lips leaving a trail of kisses as she did so. she kissed both breasts then continue moving diw tqwwards floras privates which were now hard to the touch.. you.. ready?' she grinned her face close to floras nethers, the smell pugent yet arousing..' i take you've never done this before. after i do this. you have to do it to me' marita said pointing to her vagina.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I have to...oh!" Flora was currently too turned on to devote much brainpower to the prospect of anything after the imminent blowjob, but she still marveled at the prospect of getting to reciprocate. She'd always been extremely open to providing sexual favors, even if life had always found a way for nothing to ever come to fruition, but she couldn't help but worry that she'd do a bad job due to lack of experiance. "Okay!" she exclaimed excitedly. "I can't wait!"

Nick22

marita pressed her lips to flora's nethers feeling the folf tense beneath her. marita let he musk waft over her running her hands over floras butt, and she began to 'blow' flora, sucking lightly , then harder, her mouth opening wider and wider to close more and more around floras member. marita moaned as she ' stimulated flora.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora let out a low moan, arching her back and tensing her muscles. The feeling was incredible, and as the friction continued rhythmically she felt herself get more and more excited. Marita was bringing her a world full of pleasure, and before long she felt her climax threatening to burst. "If...if you keep this up," she panted through ragged breaths, "...I'm gonna cum!"

Nick22

marita pulled away and off of flora, leaving the folf to slowly unclimax. ' you dont come until you and i are one ' she smirked. ' now.. its your turn to whet your appetite' she said getting off of flora and lying down on her back. ' your turn to be on top too ' she s added

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora moaned turgidly when Marita's stimulation stopped and she felt her release slip away. "O-okay..." Rolling over with a wince, Flora took a deep breath and slid her tongue into Marita's inner folds. Running her tongue along the inner walls, she massaged the outside with her thumbs and marveled at how deep her tongue could go. Nick22

Marie and Rose entered the apartment and smiled as they saw Marita "busy" with Flora. not wishing to disturb the pair, rose went into the kitchen to make herself and Marie some food." marie was digging out bread from the pantry.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora felt the older woman tense up with each lap. She stretched her tongue as far as it went and noticed with surprise that it was angled a lot more downward than sheâ€™d always expected. How have all those pornos prepared me so little for this?After some time, she switched to a figure eight pattern, and decided to start exploring. Trailing her tongue up Marita's abdomen, Flora rubbed her fingers along the stomach before finding her way to Marita's breasts. She felt an excited thrill when she brushed the dog's nipples with her lips, giving them her mouth's full attention. She was so preoccupied massaging Marita's breasts that it was several minutes before she realized with a flash of shock that her flytrap was pressed tenderly between Marita's legs... This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jan 23 2016, 08:37 PM

Nick22

marita tensed as Flora entered her then she leaned forward to grab flora by the face and pull her into a steamy liplock. marita forced her tongued deep into floras mouth and held the kiss as they settled into the lovemaking ' inwardly she was thining flora was doing pretty good for her first time ever doing this. a prono, this was not. then again marta never watched those anyway.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora gasped, eyes widening as her brain caught up to what her body had already figured out. She barely registered as Marita's lips connected with hers, so focused was she on what was happening downstairs. "Mmmph!" she yelped in surprise, faltering for only a single thrust before plowing ahead. Her eyes drew themselves to Marita's bouncing breasts. It didn't take long at all. "Marita...!" she tried to pant, but Marita's tongue in her mouth rendered her words unintelligible. I'm already about to blow! she thought in a panic, How do I stop??? With little to no chance of stopping herself, she hoped Marita was okay with how little time had passed before the folf stiffened up and groaned passionately as her climax coursed through her in a wave of pleasure. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jan 25 2016, 03:53 AM

Nick22

Marita moved under Flora so the wolf was fully inside her, and it wasn't long before she felt a warm rush as the inexperienced girl peaked. Marita broke the kiss briefly 'don't be upset. this is a learning experience. we have all night for me to teach you ' she said locking lips with Flora again and climbing on top of her, moaning slightly as she did so.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora gulped for air, her body shivering with emotions as her peak subsided. Wrapping her arms tightly around Marita, she hugged her as hard as she could while the dog climbed on top of her. "This is so awesome..." she gasped, eyes shimmering with tears. "Getting to finally be so close to someone...to experience a genuine physical connection...it's everything I've always dreamed of..." She pressed her face into Marita's chest. "Thank you...for everything..." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jan 26 2016, 03:12 PM well, you're welcome ' Marita said holding Flora to her breasts. ' i'm glad you are enjoying this, because i am too. Romps are fun, and i'm guessing you haven't had many of those>'

Nick22

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora shook her head in confirmation (and to get some free marshmallow hell while we she was there.) "I really haven't..." she replied, smiling. "Before I met you three, I've only had one experience I'd classify as a romp." Her eyes lit up in memory. "Maybe I could tell you three about it over dinner..."

Nick22

or you could tell me while we finish our romp ' Marita said kissing her passionately. ' so, flora.. talk to me about yourself..' she panted between kisses.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Oh, it's too long a story for that," panted Flora back, wrapping her lips around Marita's and pressing her fingerpads into her lover's breasts. "What would you even want to know about me? I've told you everything..." Except about Flora's psionics, and already she was wondering how she was going to keep that a secret forever. After all, they were currently living in a facility that wants to test her precisely because of said psionic abilities, it wasn't hard to imagine that circumstance could reveal her darkest secret to those she loved most. "Before I met Emilena in Corona, I lived by breaking into cars and driving them to new towns until the gas ran out. I'd usually buy fast food with money from the glove compartment and I'd shower at truck stops. I'm lucky I never got arrested..." Nick22 everything. my dear flora. if you are going to be in a relationship with me. you have to tell me about what happened prior. also you're going to have to identify as fully lesbian, because that's what i am. now a personal question. you have the organs of a male in addition to those of a female, i, of course have female parts. thus the possibility is there for us to have children. i ask you, my beautiful folk... do you want to have kids? of course i'd be the one to have to birth them..but' marita smiled ' i wouldnt mind that at all.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Fully lesbian?" Flora mulled over. "I always was kinda bisexual though..." And then her eyes went wide when Marita asked the next part. "Kids???" Her flytrap, which had been inching its way back into the warm embrace of Marita's thighs, retreated into its sheath at record speed. "H-have children? Wow, that's--I--really--sudden for a second date, you know?" she stammered. "I--having babies...uh, could I even have kids? My biology's so messed up, I'm not even sure if I'm fertile." At only seventeen, Flora had always been too concerned with getting laid to ponder on the biological ramifications of being successful. "I think I'd ask to have the doctors here whether that's even possible!" she blurted. "Before we plan anything. So, um, question I probably should have asked earlier..." she grinned nervously, "Are you three...on any birth control?"

Nick22

girls cant get other girls pregnant. we lack the plumbing for that. so no we're not on birth control, because since we bang each other, theres no risk of pregnancy. we do have protection against STDs though. we're all clean of that. i trust you are clean as well? marita said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Oh yeah, I'm clean," Flora assured her, still hung up a little about Marita's chosen rationale for not needing birth control. "I was a virgin, you know. Not a lot of opportunities to pick things up, unfortunately." She stretched her arms and shifted her position so Marita was spooning her backside instead of her crotch. "Say, are you hungry?" she asked digressively, "Cause I'm super starving after that workout." With her attention finally off Marita for a moment, she became aware of the ample fluid stains causing the couch cushions to cling to their fur. "Oh man, we made a serious mess of this upholstery..." She bit her lip as she observed the damage. "Hopefully they do daily cleanings...and don't bill us..."

Nick22

i'm sure they have vaccums in here that we could use to clean up ' marita said.' if you're finished ' then go clean yourself off. just dont take more than 10 minutes because i newed to get cleaned too.' Marita said. i'll vacuum while you go get cleaned up..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Okay!" smiled Flora, skipping towards the bathroom. Her heart was pounding in her chest and unable to shake a feeling of foreboding ever since the end of the conversation. She'd needed a break from the lovemaking just to digest this new direction their relationship had taken. She had been extremely startled by the kids question; the possibility had literally never entered her mind. She practically still considered herself a kid, having lived only 17 years and without ever holding a job or having any sort of responsibility. Was she ready to have kids? Could she even take care of kids considering her financial situation? And whether her mental answer was yes or no, the fact remains that she just blew a load right in the babymaker, and Marita is showing no indication of not wanting the baby if nature takes its course... She became aware that she was in the kitchen, having taken a wrong turn due to not knowing the layout of this sizable apartment. "Oh, uh, hi gals!" she beamed, face flushing red as she realized she wasn't exactly presentable at the moment. But while she was here... "Hey, do you mind if I ask you both a question?" She lowered her voice so it didn't carry into the living room. "Where do you two stand exactly on the topic of...having children?"

Nick22

have a seat flora ' marie said as she entered the kitchen we've made sandwiches. i'm sure tyour hungry.' as flora asked her quesgtion her faces narrowed in though ' kids, well thats not really come up.. i've always preferred other girls and kid making wasnt a possibility.but .. you have both male and female parts so you could 'father' a child..- well if you want to have kids, with one of us.. well you'll need to earn an income. kids arent cheap.. at all. try many hundreds of thousands of creds, if not into the millions." Rose said. but i'd be fine with having kids with you ' rose said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora sat down and took a sandwich. "You all keep saying I have male and female parts, but I don't have a vagina," she reminded. "I was born male and have never had any surgeries, so my body hasn't changed in THAT way." She bit into her sandwich. It was delicious but she couldn't place the meat. "I'm only asking because Marita mentioned she wanted kids with me." She looked Marie and Rose in the eyes. "Is it true none of you are on birth control? Is that safe? I'm glad you all see me as a girl, but my manhood IS fully-functioning."

Nick22

you have fully functioning breasts and identify as female, yet have a male package, thus you have both ' Marie said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I mean...my breasts might be fully functioning..." Flora blushed. "I don't actually know, never having had kids to...well you know..." She shifted uncomfortably. "But on the topic of unwanted pregnancies, my, uh, male part is kinda the more pressing concern. If we're going to keep having sex, are you girls planning on taking any birth control?" She glanced out the door at the living room. "And...is Marita?"-----There was a light knock on the front door, too quiet for the girls in the kitchen to hear. "Hello!" smiled a skirted receptionist clerk when the door opened. She was different from the one they'd met in the lobby. She handed Marita an unmarked envelope. "This is Miss Flora's testing schedule for tomorrow. Dr. Ven Der Merwe insists that she must be punctual in reaching the indicated stations, but tell her not to be shy asking for directions if needed!" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 2 2016, 04:58 AM will do ' marita said taking the envelope. she had only opened the dood enough so the clrk could see her face and so she could grab the envelope. " i'll see to it she gets there on time. have a goof evening.' she shut the door bhind the clerk as she left._ naturally we will use birth control, to avoid unwante pregnancy. Marita as well. the only time we would stop is if we were trying to have a baby.' Rose said.' so starting now, we will start going on borh control. of course that doesnt eliminate entirely the possibility of pregnancy.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"That's true, but you could always get an abortion worst case scenario," shrugged Flora. She helped herself to a second sandwich. She looked behind her as she saw Marita coming for the kitchen. I wonder if they even sell morning-after pills in this country..."Hi Marita! Come grab something to eat!" she smiled. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 2 2016, 03:41 PM

Nick22

Abortions? are you nuts?' Marie exclaimed " No, if one of us gets pregnant by you, we're KEEPING it!_ Abnortions are out Flora' rose said shaking her head." so put that put of your head. If I get pregnant, I'm keeping the baby.- got a package fir you Flora Marita said "Directions for testing and a schedule fir tests. you need to be punctual as well' Marita said, going over and starting to make herself a sandwich.' Go get yourself cleaned up' she said to Flora. We'll discuss it after your shower.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Okay, no abortions!" Flora agreed, alarmed at the degree of protest the suggestion elicited. Grateful for the chance to change the subject, she quickly took the envelope and opened it. "Hmm, tomorrow begins with a 'circulatory and muscular systems baseline assessment' at..." the hairs on the back of her neck prickled, "...9am...crap what time is it?" The kitchen clock noted that 9 am was in seven hours. "Yikes, they aren't fooling around," she muttered, exiting for the shower without further ado. "I need to get to bed or I'm going to be exhausted for my first day of tests..." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 5 2016, 01:09 AM

Ten minutes later, Flora returned from the shower with her hair in a towel and her fur looking frizzy. "So I just noticed," she grinned coyly, "that there's only two beds. We're gonna have to double up, who wants to be my cuddle buddy for the night?"

Nick22

I will' Rose said "i hope you dont mind if i sleep in the nude Flora ' she said , a grin on her face. fine i'll share with marie after i Get out of the shower. Marita said going into the bathroom.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes lit up. "Sounds good to me!" She couldn't help but stare at Rose's curves, imagining what it must feel like to press her face into those breasts while warm under the covers. Flora had always fantasized of large-breasted women, and of the three girls Rose was the most well endowed. "So long as you're okay with me being naked too," she said over her shoulder with a smile, exiting for the bedroom. "I'll be in bed getting comfy..." Nick22

Girl, i'm used to seeing girls naked. comes from being a former stripper. you see lots of tits and packages, and more than a few times those are on the same customer. you're not the first girl packing both guns, as we say in the business, that i've seen. those girls tipped well too, because they liked having a fling wth someone who wasnt flipping at at their member. if i hadnt been badly hooked on biproxytol at the time. i likely still would be doing that. biproxytol is not a drug you want to get addicted to, lets just say that ; Rose said getting into bed with Flora.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Mmm, you lucky girl..." purred Flora, snuggling closer to Rose under the covers. She pressed as much of her body as she could into Rose's soft curves. "I wish I'd had that many lovers...of all shapes and sizes..." She wasn't particularly interested in being subtle; already her hands were getting very grabby and her body was shuddering with excitement. "Do you ever miss getting to be so sexually active with so many people?" she asked. "A new person every night...sometimes multiple...?" Flora's hands bushed Rose's ample chest. "All the partners you could ever want..." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 8 2016, 10:50 PM

we had to have protection, of course ' rose said stroking floras butt and tail. didnt want any stds or pregnancies on the clock. we didnt have insurance for that sort of thing. sand truhfully i was drugged up most of the time. its not a job you can do for 40 years, once you get past 35, they dump you for younger models..' rose reached over and pulled out a condom and worked it onto floras member ' don;'t want to run any risks from our flng, now do we' she smirked.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes lit up as Rose brought up protection before she had to. "No, we don't," she agreed, climbing on top of Rose and pressing their lips together. For some reason, she felt way more comfortable taking charge with Rose. Maybe it was the older woman's level of experience; after having so many lovers, Flora knew there was little she could do wrong that Rose wouldn't have seen before. Her pawpads pressed into Rose's breasts and her whole body relished the feel of Rose's skin. She trembled at delight from the feel of Rose's hand on her butt. "I think you'll be beautiful even after 35," she panted, taking only a breath's break from the kiss. "You're gorgeous..."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

When Rose didn't resist, Flora slid her member in between her legs, groaning softly. For some reason Rose was a lot warmer than Marita was, and the soft bed and fluffy blankets only made the experience better. Flora was also able to last a lot longer. Smiling unashamedly, Flora pressed herself against Rose and thrust away. She was too sleepy to really register the passage of time, but somehow that added to the dreamlike quality of their lovemaking.

Nick22

rose kissed flora passionately as they made love, drawing moans from the folf as roses dark red lips locked with floras dark red lips continuously. rose suddenly flipped flora onto her back and climbed on top.. rose softly ran her claws along floras back then moving to her front.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora panted heavily as Rose took things to the next level, increasing the pace and speeding up their thrusting rhythm. Flopping obediently over as Rose took control, the folf stretched her arms and let her tongue languidly loll out of her mouth limply as she felt Rose's hands play along her body. The blankets clung to her sweat-slicked fur and the friction was sending her nerves into overdrive. Suddenly she felt it building up within her, the tightly-coiled sensations of release bubbling up through her abdomen and sending all of her muscles contracting. Unlike with Marie and Marita, Flora ignored it and merely continued enjoying the sex. She neither tried to achieve the coming orgasm nor delay it, and to her immense satisfaction this caused the buildup phase to prolong itself, simmering just under the surface until Rose's thrusts drew it out of her. With one final moan Flora had the longest climax of her life."Ohhhhh man..." Flora locked her knees instinctively when it was over. "Don't tell the others..." she muttered weakly, "but you were far and away the best..." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 15 2016, 05:56 AM well ' rose smiled ' i've been doing this sort of thing for years..you're good, for someone who hasnt had much sex. very soft kissable lips- the redder the lips the more kissable they are- good sized tits, and you've got a decent sized pecker. not the biggest one i've had in me, but a nice size. now, for a cool down period. i'm going to kiss you in the lips, and hold it for awhile. you wanna french m,e. thats fine, whatever cools you down afterwards. now.. here we go. ' rose reached out, grabbed floras face and pulled her face close to her and kissed her fully and firmly on the lips.. for now.. Rose kept her nmouth closed as the liplock started. she would open it only i response to Flora.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora happily returned the kiss. She enjoyed the cooldown period greatly, letting her heart rate return to normal and just enjoy the sensation of her body pressed against Rose's. She didn't stick her tongue in Rose's mouth, simply because it seemed too much work for such a relaxing afterglow. "Your breasts are the largest I've ever gotten to touch..." she whispered excitedly, running her fingers along Rose's cleavage to prove her point. She hadn't even pulled out yet; even her flytrap was relaxed and enjoying the warmth.

Nick22

i've touched bigger breasts than mine' Rose said softly kissing Flora again on the lips. yhe was a slight gush as their bodies untangled, and rose gently slid her tongue into Floras mouth and lovingly massaged the folfs tongue with her own. Rose had enjoyed the lovemaking, she thought flora, woth more seasoning would make a fine lover for her. Rose enjoyed romps with marita- for obvious reasons- and Marie- but Flora offered many new possibilities.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Lucky..." murmured Flora sleepily. With Rose on top and taking more control, Flora was finding her brain less and less conscious. Without even noticing, her eyes were closing, her muscles were relaxing and the sensations of being pressed against Rose were slipping away to the similar contented feelings of a relaxed dreamscape.

Nick22

RoSe kissed flora euntil she was certain that the girl wasnt actually awake then she pulled away to the other side of the bed, to give the folf space to sleep. She was soon asleep as well

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora didn't remember dozing off, but her next conscious thought was the apartment phone ringing in a polite but shrill jingle. Groggily crawling over Rose, Flora awkwardly grabbed the receiver and mumbled a confused hello. "Good morning, Miss Flora." The warm but authoritative voice of Dr. Van Der Merwe filtered through. "I apologize for disturbing your sleep, but it's 9:30. They're waiting for you in the circulation lab..." Flora's eyes flew open. "Oh god, I'm so sorry!" she stammered. "I'm on my way over RIGHT NOW!" "Well, don't hurt yourself in your rush," the doctor advised, but Flora had already leaped out of bed. Looking around the room wildly, she located her clothes in the living room and hesitated before putting them on. They were dusty, stained, and had been purchased for five dollars from a pawn shop. She'd literally make a better impression in a Sartonic bathrobe until she could buy new clothes. Seconds later she dashed into the hall wielding the instruction pamphlet and clad in a fluffy white robe adorned with the Sartonic logo on the breast. Several minutes later, she reached the circulation lab and, huffing and puffing, dragged herself through the door. GOOD MORNING , greeted a robotic voice; Flora couldn't tell if it was automated or just heavily filtered. PLEASE REMOVE YOUR CLOTHING AND ATTACH THE NODES ACCORDING TO THE DIAGRAM .It was referring to two printouts of a genderless human's front and backside. A number of circular sticky nodes were sitting on a small table beside a large treadmill, and Flora did her best to place them on her body to match the image. VERY GOOD.

NOW, PLEASE RUN ON THE TREADMILL, STANDING UP STRAIGHT AND ASSUMING A STEADY, MANAGEABLE PACE. Flora was not in the mood to do more running, so her steady and manageable pace was pretty pathetic, but nevertheless after fifteen minutes the voice seemed pleased. It ran her through several other basic exercises, from push-ups to jumping jacks to cherry pickers. Then a television turned on and a smiling female trainer demonstrated different yoga poses for her to hold. THANK YOU VERY MUCH , the voice finally affirmed, as Flora left downward dog for the last time and dragged her sweaty self off the mat. THE CIRCULATION BASELINE TESTS ARE COMPLETE. SHOWERS ARE AVAILABLE TO THE LEFT, PAST THE BATHROOMS. WHEN YOU ARE READY, PLEASE PROCEED TO LAB 31 FOR YOUR HORMONAL EXAM. The shower was public, but luckily it was empty when Flora took hers. She wondered what sort of folk she'd see if she were ever to walk in when someone was using it. She showered the bare minimum and left for Lab 31 as soon as possible; after starting off late she didn't want to keep whatever staff member was handling her physical waiting. But even though she was prepared for anything, it was nothing short of abject shock that crossed her face when she walked in and saw who was waiting for her. "Kojurro???" she gasped, observing him in a Sartonic labcoat and a nametag. "What are...how did you get here?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 17 2016, 07:58 PM

Kojurro smiled at her ' Flora! what a surprise! its a lonmg story. these guys found me lying in an alley, and treated me while running tests on my body. turns out i have some weird disorder that stops the bleeding of cuts 5 times faster than a normal person. Odd that. so what bring you to Sartonic?' he smiled patting the open seat next to him.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora swallowed her surprise, not wanting to look flustered in front of someone she'd known from before. "My story's pretty long too...Kalis captured us, and tortured me in his warship, but Lily saved me. Marita, Rose and Marie found me in the desert, and the four of us have been trying to get by ever since. Sartonic is interested in my psionic powers," she admitted. "See...I never told you guys this, but...I've always had the ability to alter my appearance as it grows in. It's why my fur is such a weird color. "She looked at his outfit. "Did they hire you? Cause they're treating me like a lab rat. Not that I'm complaining, of course; they've been super hospitable, some testing is a small price to pay. Speaking of which, how are we going to do this..." she read her printout of today's tests "reproductive system analysis anyway?" as an intern yes . its a job, and in 2 months i'll become full time kojuro said ' as fr your testing it will involve taking samples of your semen. theres a girl who volunteered to assist you in that. you'll have to kiss her until you release enough semen for us to analyze. after that. we'll measure the size of your privates, and check to make sure they are healthy.' Kojuro said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's pupils dilated. "I...uh...okay," she stammered, flushing furiously red. "I'm, uh, ready than you are." She tried to smile nonchalantly but her mind was still spinning. "And, uh, when she is. What's her name?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 23 2016, 10:02 PM

Nick22

Her name is " Kojuuro flipped through a sheet of paper " Emma, and shes an 18 year old vixen. Very pretty, and open-minded too. you'll be her first kiss, ever. So theres that as well. she;ll be here in 10 minutes.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora sat down in the proffered bench nervously. "18? That's...almost my age..." She looked around the room nervously, wondering if she needed to hold a catching container or something. I think I'll just leave everything to them... she finally decided before opening her mouth and possibly saying something dumb. They're employees, they must be prepared to handle everything. She couldn't help but wonder about Emma. As an eighteen-year old, she'll be the first time Flora had ever kissed someone also in the teens. For some reason this made Flora all the more nervous that she might embarrass herself, not the least reason of which being that she'd never met Emma before. It was going to be a rather intimate interaction for Flora's first impression... This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 26 2016, 05:55 PM

Nick22

A few minutes later a young red colored vixen entered the room. she had bright green eyes pale red fur, an ample chest and the darkest red lips flora had ever seen." Hi, um. you must be Flora. I'm Emma, and well I'm supposed to um., Stimulate you. i think is how the doctor put it.. But Um.. I'd like to chat first, if thats ok with you ' she said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes widened, but she quickly recovered and kept her jaw from slacking open. "Um, er, hi! Yeah!" she said brightly, probably too chipper. Tone it down! "Yeah sure, we can talk! I'd love to talk!" She held out a shaking hand. "Hi, I'm Flora!" She already knows your name is Flora... her inner voice groaned. "Though you already knew that, didn't you?" she tried to recover, sweat pooling on her forehead and a toothy smile plastered on her face. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 23 2016, 11:26 PM

Nick22

i'll leave you two be ' Kojuuro said as he got up." Um.. Could we have a couple glasses of water. just to sip on while we talk" emma asked. ' sure, sure ' i'll see if we have bottled water if not i'll get some from the fountain. be right back." kojurro headed out the door and closed it behind him._ so flora tell me a little bit about yourself ' i'm 18, just turned 18 last month in fact. i'm the youngest of 3, have two older brother Matt and Morris , Matts 4 years older morris is 3. i needed money so I could go to college.. and well the job description was vague. I've.. never kissed anyone, so i don;t know where i am on the spectrum sexually . i wont tell my parents the details, thats really my business.' emma said. A Nurse was showing marita marie and rose ataround campus, each of the girls was holding a large brochure compl;ete with map ' we've been testing special clients here for more than 10 years..' the nure said ' marie was starting to tune her out , she sounded like a tour guide.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Wow, you're going to college?" breathed Flora. "That's so cool...I've always heard awesome things about college...drinking and partying all night." She couldn't draw her gaze away from Emma's face, especially her bright green eyes. "I, uh...never graduated any school myself...always been kind of off the grid." Emma probably didn't need to know about the drug dealing, car stealing, or the laundry list of other crimes she committed while with Emilena's gang. Flora decided to switch gears and focus on her powers instead of her backstory. "I can change my appearance however I want just by thinking about it." She realized Emma would be expecting a demonstration. "It doesn't happen instantly, the new stuff has to grow in. That was how I became a girl though..."Flora blushed. "Never kissed anyone, huh? Well, I hope you aren't expecting tips from me. I'm not super experienced myself, always been kinda unlucky..." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 23 2016, 11:52 PM

Nick22

so you've never been to school? did you start an apprenticeship somewhere or something Emma asked " i hear those pay good, but i wouldnt know.. and yeah i've never kissed a girl.. um.. if you'd like to go out something so we can do stuff together and maybe kiss as normal people do. i'd be up for that..' emma shrugged.' yeah i'm trying to become a model, for clothes.. need a degree for it.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"A clothes model? That's awesome!" Flora smiled. "Um, I used to do nude modeling for Corona U on the side. It was a nice supplementary income. It was probably the closest I've ever been to being in school too, come to think of it."Her head was spinning. Was Emma...asking me out? It sounded like she just asked me out. "Yeah, I'd love to hang out and go places!" she exclaimed. "And kiss! As normal people do! Wait, would people around here be okay with that?" she suddenly amended. "Never heard great things about Arabia's acceptance on homosexuality." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 24 2016, 12:15 AM

Nick22

We're in Arabia, Western Iraq in be precise' Emma said " So you did nude modelling? how long did you do that? Did you get asked out a lot? How was the pay? thats not something I'd.. um consider doing.. my girls are reserved for someone special, not just for anyone to oogle or touch..' she said covering her chest with her arms.. ' so.. once we get done with this.. would you be free to do something.. we're pretty isolated here, and as long as we dont start french kissing openly in public i dont think people will care if we hold hands while in public.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"No nobody asked me out while I was modeling, they were all older than me. College kids you know..." Flora replied. "I just took my clothes off and stood really still and they drew me, sometimes painted. They weren't supposed to interact or talk with me cause it might distract me from staying perfectly still." She checked her schedule. "I've got some more tests later tonight, but after this one I have the rest of the afternoon off! We should totally do something after!" she smiled. so they just drew your body for art class. well a job is a job' emma shrugged ' hmm.. what sort of thing could we do? something fun.. Go for a hike a suppose.."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Mostly. Maybe a few videos here and there...but those weren't exactly university-sanctioned..." Flora fidgeted. "Oooh how about a swim?" she suddenly suggested, brightening up. "Is there a sauna or a pool? It's been so long since I had a good swim, and all this desert's got me missing the water more than ever." well there might be an oasis nearby, whether natural or manmade. Emma said.i'd be up for a swim ' she said ' arabia is murder of my fur, i've got all sorts of split ends ' she sighed. ' so how did you realize you had powers.. was it just something you were born with or..? i'm pretty normal, well i'm taller than my mom, and my moms pretty tall. for a girl that is..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"You're not normal, you're drop dead gorgeous!" Flora blurted out, then immediately turned an even darker shade of fuchsia. "Er....um, I mean, to answer your question, it started when I was in an all-male boarding school. I was a grey wolf at the time, but I'd always wanted to be a vixen... then my body started responding to my inner desires and I slowly developed curves and lighter fur..." Flora bit her lip remembering the fear that had eclipsed that time. "It was terrifying. I got so scared that people would judge me, or hurt me...so I just...ran away," she remembered. "Really far away. I never saw anyone from my old life again." She forced out a casual chuckle to pretend she'd fully recovered from the old history. "Puberty's a bitch, huh?" She listened as Emma spoke about her mother. "So you've really never kissed anybody?" Flora asked. "I mean, no offense but you're a bombshell. Guys must have been crawling all over you." li.. well wasnt one of the popular girls at school. i was a late bloomer.. here ' Emma pulled out a picture that showed a teenage vixen about 15 , with large braces a flat chest and a thin shirt- and showed it to Flora.'that's me from 3 years ago. I was.. well I was forced to join band instead of cheerlead. that should tell you how i was in the looks department. you're beautiful.. i mean 3 years ago someone like you would have never given me the time of day. I've only grown into this is rally the past 3 months or so. You.. were able to literally change yourself, from a wolf to a fox! you were able to do.. well what every teenagers wants! To change how they look! you were able to do that.. to change from a guy .. to a girl..You ever think about changing back to a guy wolf?' Emma asked.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I tried!" confessed Flora. "Right at the beginning, I fought my transformations as hard as I could!" She sighed. "But I had no control, so they kept operating off of my secret desires, ignoring how inappropriate their timing was. Nowadays I can control it a lot more, but there still needs to be an element of desire. And I don't ever want to look like my old self again." She smiled. "I like new me."She continued on the subject of Emma. "So, you weren't a loner by choice? You're a sight for sore eyes now, how have you restrained yourself the last three months? Is that why you've grabbed such an...intimate...sort of job? It's just weird that a nurse who kisses people for sperm donations has never been kissed." well I didnt KNOW this gig would entail playing tonsil hockey with another girl!' Emma said a bit flustered' "I just thought, maybe that I would have to help , test your reflexes or something like that. nope I have to let you stick your tongue down my throat until we can test your ' equipment' I only found out you'd be the one I'd be assisting last evening.. very last minute switch you see. originally my first kiss would have been with a yak from South America, but he left the program 2 days ago so they switched .. and.. i need the money. model school isnt cheap. but , well you're really attractive, and you've got magic powers, so in many ways I got lucky."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Pfft!" Flora giggled, "if those were really your options, I guess you did get lucky!" She leaned forward. "I'd say I'm pretty lucky too..." her eyes twinkled, "otherwise I bet I'd be snogging Kojurro right now, and you're a hell of a lot cuter!" She slid her robe off so it draped on the back of the bench. "Guess we should get this going..." she tried to say nonchalantly, even though her heart was racing, "we shouldn't keep Kojurro waiting too long..." Nick22

JKojuuro entered the room a few seconds later, carrying two large cups of water ' sorry t be so later girls had to find a bubbler that was working..' he said before seeing Floroa unrobed " Er.. I'll. just set these down here and dim the lights so you girls have some privacy.. the tube over there is for catching the sample. just stick it on there once she;s stimulated dully.' i'll be back in an hour..' he said setting the water down and heading back out.. uh.. keeping your robe on please.. i wanna do this step by step, if thats ok

Emma said blanching as she saw Floras breasts exposed.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora paled when Kojurro appeared and Emma asked her to put her robe back on. "O-okay!" she stammered, face paling with embarrassment. She scrambled to dress herself and almost dropped the robe in her haste. "Sorry, sorry!" she squealed with embarrassment to the vixen. After so much time with Rose, Marie, and Marita, she'd forgotten that normal people were less okay with nudity. "Um, er, I...will just let you say when things begin from now on..." she apologized in a small voice, filled with shame. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 26 2016, 12:20 AM its ok. i just wasnt expecting you to show me your goods right off the bat.. thats not something i was Expecting Emma Said " I mean. We'll be showing each other most of ourselves. have to, if we want to get that sample. so.. lets chat a little more, and then i'll kiss you. just a regular kiss, no tongue, at least right away..'

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"That's okay...I shouldn't have done that..." Flora blushed, still beet-red and unable to meet Emma's eye. "I've never really been with 'normal' people, I'm pretty uncultured. Living off the grid you know...don't know any manners at all...but I won't do it again, promise." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 24 2016, 11:57 PM

Nick22

Its alright. you didn't know any better' emma said kindly. ' we all make mistakes. so. i'm guessing you still have male parts. i'mm guessing your transformation to girls wasnt complete..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Well, no I mean, there's only so much you can do when you're tweaking yourself from the inside, no surgeries or anything," Flora chuckled, relieved for the subject change. "Biologically I'm still completely male, just...curvier. But I'm okay with that, I more enjoy being treated like a girl when I'm walking around in public with clothes on, you know? The male role's pretty fun in the bedroom. Though it's a large part of my lack of success in that department," she admitted. She bit her lip. "That doesnt...bother you, does it?" she asked tentatively. "I've met a lot of people who weren't okay with it." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Feb 26 2016, 12:22 AM

you're not completely a guy though. normal guys dont have fully functioning breasts' emma pointed out. ' Guys have no breasts and a pecker. girls have breasts and no pecker. so.. you;re a girl, with both male and female sexual organs. hermaphrodite, in other words. i take it you like being treated as a girl etter, so for simplicitys sake, we'll say you're a girl. which would making the kissing we are going to do same sex- lesbian to precise. so.. you want to touch tongues pbefore we start kissing. you stick out your tongue i stick out mine and we rub them together. i'd.. like to try it out if thats ok. only ru;le is. no trying to slip your tongue in my mouth.well until I say you can.' emma said..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora realized the kissing was about to start, and eagerly nodded. "Okay! Sounds great!" She acquiescently stuck her tongue out. It felt kinda awkward, letting it hang there in open empty space, but she kept her eyes closed and tried to find some romance in the anticipation. Remember she's a professional...don't worry about looking embarrassing, it's not like you've been remotely suave up to now... Nick22

Emma crossed over to the bench and sat down next Flora, and smoothed out her thin pink dress. As she did so she saw Flora close her eyes and stick outt her tongue. emma took a deep breath turned her body to face flora and leaned in close. Floras face grew closer and her pink tongue stuck out from those dark red lips, as Emma lips came with range of Floras, Emma stuck out her tongue, at first Emmas tongue just lightly brushed floras sat the tips, but as Emma moved in closer, her tongue made full contact. this was not a tongue lashing as seen in some film, it was a nervous slow uncoordinated tongue kiss from two really inexperienced girls, they were actually licking each others face far more than they wre touching tongues. Unlike Flora Emma kept her eyes open

Flora jumped slightly when their tongues collided. Emma wasn't forceful or controlling like Rose and Marita were; she almost seemed as awkward as Flora was. Flora remembered that this was Emma's first kiss; with a jolt of shock she realized that she was actually more experienced than her partner for the first time. But still, Emma had been very clear that things moved at her pace, so Flora kept her tongue submissively reacting to Emma's, and her hands stayed by her side. She made sure not to do anything to prevent Emma from progressing at her own pace.

Nick22

as the tongue lashing continued Emmas lips closed upon Floras. at the first contact(and soft brush) emmas tongue reateatd into her mouth anmd she made stronger contact, feeling Floras mouth againmst hers. Emma keep her left hand in her lap but her right moved to touch floras left arm. emma murmured as she settled into the kiss.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora felt Emma progress to hand- and lip-contact, and acquiescently assumed a more active role in the kiss. She felt a subdermal thrill when Emma's hand brushed her arm and kept her lips pressed against Emma's, giving Emma complete unrestricted access to whatever part of Flora's body she wanted.

Nick22

emma moved her arm up to Floras shoulder to brace herself , and began kissing flora passionately, as the kiss moved past a minute, Emmas mouth opened while nibbling on floras lips and her tongue slid briefly into floras mouth. realizing what was going on., emma took a deep breath and began to massage floras tongue with hers inbetween locking lips with her.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes flew open in surprise when Emma's tongue entered her mouth. She quickly reciprocated, brushing her lips against Emma's while still allowing the vixen to maintain control. "Mmmmm" she breathed, getting into the passion of the kiss. In a burst of emotion she almost got her hands into the action, but had to will herself to remain submissive. For a folf who let Marita, Rose and Marie dominate the flow of the lovemaking, she was having to remain surprisingly restrained with Emma. She was just getting hungry for the good stuff.

Nick22

After nearly 3 full minutes, emma finally broke away, Floras tongue slidings out of her mouth l.. Uh' her face grew redder as she realized what had just happened. not only had she just had her first kiss, she had also french kissed for the first time ' so.. um.. how did i do? for my first , I mean/ She asked Flora as Emma moved away from her and to give the folf a bit of personal space. Emma clasped her hands together in her lap.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora panted loudly when the kiss broke. "You did awesome!" she beamed encouragingly. "Very receptive!" She genuinely did enjoy Emma's eagerness, not to mention the mental excitement at being Emma's first gave Flora her own motivation for the kiss to go well. "It's a shame you waited so long to start giving nookie, cause a lot of boys in your past missed out." She smiled crookedly, hoping Emma didn't think too hard about what she just said. "But its lucky for me, cause otherwise I wouldn't have been your first..."She leaned forward. "If you're looking for tips, I think you should use your hands a lot more. Kissing is awesome, but it's just one aspect of foreplay. You should focus on exploring your whole partner's body, not just the tongue." It was kinda exciting for Flora, being the knowledgeable partner for once. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Mar 2 2016, 01:13 PM

Nick22

ALright' emma said nervously " this next kiss I'll.. touch your chest.. I suppose. um. third kiss we'll undress completely..after all i'm here to get a sample from you . so.. here we go she said leaning in and kissing Flora on the lips.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora liked that idea, and excitedly returned the kiss, making sure not to seem too eager. She had to let Emma retain control after all...it was interesting being with someone more insecure than the older women in the apartment. Flora wanted to make sure Emma had as good a first time as Rose had given Flora.

Nick22

Emma settled into the kiss and began to passionately massage Flora's tongue with her own. Her hands moved up to the hem of Flora's robe and began to untie the robe, gradually revealed the fof's breasts. once the breasts were partly visible Emma gradually began to caress them with her claws, feeling the soft, supple and warm breasts beneath her claws. each passing second, a bond was forming between Emma and Flora, the king you form with a significant other.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Mmmmm..." Flora murmured happily, closing her eyes and letting Emma expose her. She relished Emma's touch; she had a gentle hesitance that none of the other girls had. "Mind if I reciprocate?" she asked during a short lull where they caught their breath. Her robe had draped lower and was hanging on her shoulders.

Nick22

'Su-Sure' Emma said nervousness in her voice. 'i-i hope i'm doing ok' she said as she ran her hand over Flora's right breast.. "I.. i think I'm enjoying this.. to tell you the truth.. I.. never thought i'd like kissing another girl.. as much as i'm enjoying kissing you..'

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora smiled and reached out to massage Emma's chest through her pink dress. Her fingers pressed into soft warm skin. Emma's breasts were springier than Flora's despite being much larger; Flora suspected it had something to do with living most of her life braless. "I never thought I'd kiss someone my own age," she whispered back, smiling, "you're probably the first teenager I've ever had as a real friend." Hands shaking, she slowly slid Emma's dress straps over her shoulders, letting her dress pool around her waist. Then she excitedly made to undo Emma's bra, excited to see her ample bosom in its full glory.

Nick22

emma helped flora work off her clothes, and worked off flora's robe exposing flora's breasts to her and her breasts to flora ' nice rack' she said 'good size and softness' she said blushing. ' i'm glad to have met you..' she said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Not as nice as yours!" blushed Flora. She'd always thought her breasts were smaller than average, but Emma would never have that problem. Her chest was huge, rounded and perky despite being weighted down by gravity. Trembling with excitement, Flora clasped her hands around them and pressed her fingers into their soft skin. She re-engaged the kiss, enjoying the multiple points of skin-to-skin contact. Without a robe to hide it, her erection fully betrayed her enthusiasm; she hoped Emma wouldn't find it too odd.

Nick22

Emma threw her arms around Flora as the girls resumed kissing. Emma pressed her chest to Floras, and pinned Flora against the bench, emma began to ran he hands down floras back, feeling floras fur beneath her hands. she stroked floras tail feeling the folfs puffy tail through her fingers. she hadnt notices floras privates as she was busy snogging flora, emma placed her tongue as deep into floras outh as she could, and loked down at the folf and the makeout continued.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's hands trailed down to Emma's butt as the vixen pinned her against the bench. She was still consciously making sure her privates didn't rub up against Emma, since she wasnt sure if the girl would be pleased or disgusted by them, but otherwise Flora relished the feeling of their bodies pressing against each other. She was amazed at how turned on she was right now; the anticipation of waiting for Emma to begin the "collection" act was tantalizing.

Nick22

After another minute' Emma broke the kiss and went over to collect the collection device. having done so, she came back over to Flora " This might sting a little ' it er.. shouldnt take more than a minute to fill' she said as she clamped on the device.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Eep!" Flora yelped in surprise when the device was attached; it looked like a long thin tube, hinged lengthwise when open, but at the moment it was clasped around her flytrap and rapidly venting the air out. She gulped nervously as the suction got tighter. "Errr, what happens now?" she stammered. "Do we need to turn it on or...?"

Nick22

its forcing you to release, by building up pressure. course the pressure should already be there since i stimulated you' Emma said.' once you start filling it up, it shouldnt take more than a minute to fill." once its full, i'll slide it off of you.. and we're done.' She said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

All of a sudden the device began vibrating, causing Flora to pant in surprise. The sensation was unlike anything she'd experienced before, very subdued but increasingly impossible to ignore. Like Emma explained, Flora felt her orgasm brimming slowly, building in intensity at an agonizingly slow rate, and she slowly degenerated into her embarrassingly high-pitched yelps, squealing pitifully as the machine worked its magic on her. She was sweating profusely and clutching Emma for support when her climax finally reached its brimming point, sending her muscles contracting and lasting almost a full minute before the machine beeped that it has obtained a full sample. The vibration stopped and Flora instinctively crossed her legs tenderly. "Oh my god..." she murmured, resting her sweat-soaked head on Emma's shoulder. "That was...intense..." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Mar 9 2016, 10:49 PM

Emma removed the device and slid a top over it as she did so Kojurro came back in ' good! you got the sample. i'll take that to the lab for testing ' He looked at his watch. ah you have 20minutes before the session ends . so if you want to spend some more time ' getting acquainted' you are free to do so.' he said as he carried the device out of the room. he closed the door behind him, and emma began getting dressed again.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora slipped her robe back on. "I guess I'll see you soon," she smiled at Emma. "According to Kojurro's schedule, he needs to give me a physical after this. Do you know if there's a place I could buy a phone? Then we could reconnect at the Jacuzzi once my physical is over." She gave a sideways grin. "I'm glad you took my...unusual anatomy...as well as you did. Most people are surprised, or at least feel the need to comment on it, but you took it stride. Guess that's why you've got this job, huh?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Mar 12 2016, 07:15 PM

Nick22

theres a phone store on the second floor' emma said ' thats where i got my phone. decent price too. i. uh. didnt look at your member, i was focused on your face, which is very nice to look at. gawking at your member would have been awkward.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Fair enough", blushed Flora. She had shown no such restraint herself. "I'll check out the phone store. Thanks for everything Emma, super glad I got to meet you." Flora wasn't sure how to keep her voice casual, and was hoping desperately not to make another embarrassing mistake as Emma was leaving. Is this what having a crush feels like?, she wondered to herself. Emma made her feel this weird desire, this longing to be accepted. It was something she'd never felt with Marita, Rose, and Marie. She wanted Emma to see her as an equal. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Mar 12 2016, 07:40 PM well, we have a few minutes. you wanna makeout one more time? Emma Asked I'm up for it, if you like.' she blushed ' cause.. well i really enjoyed doing this with you.. and we do have 20minutes before you have to go to your next appointment.. ' oh..' she pulled out a piece of paper and wrote on it. i'm in room 113 floor5. and thats my number 353-177-9800/ so.. just give me a call when you wanna do something.

Nick22

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora took the paper excitedly. She'd never gotten a girl's number before. "Sure!" she said excitedly. "Though you know you can't use your job as an excuse any more, since we're all done," she teased, before leaning over and resuming a new kiss with Emma. This time she was more forward since Emma seemed to be more comfortable with herself.

Nick22

emma's claws found their way to flora's breasts and as the kiss moved past a minute she began working off flora's clothes. 'emma was enjoying the kiss, the feel of her lips locked with flora's the scrape of flora's tongue against hers and the feel of her breasts pressed to flora's. emma was starting to consider flora a friend and not just because of the testing.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes lit up as Emma stripped her robe off. Quickly moving to reciprocate, she dexterously unbuttoned Emma's shirt and bra and slipped them around her waist. Still making out passionately, she gauged that Emma was receptive to her advances and so she removed her dress entirely. Before long, they were standing arms wrapped around each other with their clothes strewn in a wide pile around them. Flora felt herself wishing that the kiss could last forever. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Mar 20 2016, 02:34 PM

Nick22

Emma massages flora's tongue with her own, their tongues moving back and forth into each other's mouths, her hands were pressed tightly to flora's pink breasts feeling the fold. 'flora.. when we go to my apartment.. i want you to have sex with me. as much as you like however you like..because flora.. this has been the most fun i've ever had i had no idea making out could be this much fun.. she whispered between the kiss ' i want .. more.. and you've been an excellent partner so far..' emma then moved mouth down towards flora's right nipple and began to lick her there with her tongue..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora blinked excitedly, floored at Emma's offer. "I'll head up there as soon as Kojurro is done with me!" she whispered excitedly. Pressing her hands into Emma's buttocks, she pulled their bodies closer together. "I've also never had this much fun kissing someone..." she admitted. "I think I... really like you..."

Nick22

Hmm. Feelings mutual' Emma said and began to suckle vigorously at the fol's pink breasts. If you had told Emma a hour previously that she would not only kiss another girl but fondle her breasts with her mouth, she would have looked at you like you were from Mars. Yet.. here she was, fully naked with another girl, who was not only reciprocating her advances but had indicated a strong physical attraction to her. Emma felt Flora squeeze her tail, and a shudder ran through her.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

As their fooling around grew more intense, Flora grew bolder with exploring her lover's body. Reciprocating Emma's breastplay with some tongue action of her own, Flora also ran her fingers down Emma's flank and fondled between the girl's legs. "You get me so hot and bothered like this and I'm gonna have an embarrassing boner during Kojurro's physical," she teased jokingly. Nick22 well, now we wouldn't want that.. now would we? Emma said betwen kissing floras breasts. emma moved her mouth up to floras and the dark rd lips locked together once more and emma pressed her body foreceley against floras. emma felt her breasts bounce off flora and moaned as flora's member rested against her abdomen.' this.. is something i'm been looing for emma thought.. but... without another girl? Could i really be a lesbian?- kojjurro entered, to find the girls making out in the mude on the bench' um.. sorry to break up the frenching, but flora you are due for your physical' he said tapping his clipbioard

Flora smiled as Emma pressed closer. Emma had such an eager attitude, Flora loved how she felt like the vixen was just as excited as Flora to blaze new trails in her love life and mature into seasoned lovers. Then she peeped in surprise when Kojurro entered the room just as suddenly and with the same unfortunate timing as last time. "Oh my, I'm sorry to keep you waiting doctor!" she exclaimed, standing up abruptly. "I guess I'll see you soon, Emma," she smiled warmly, migrating from the bench to the exam table which covered in a thin sheet of rolled hygienic paper. Nick22

Emma got dressed again and straightened her headfur.. ' er.. yeah..i'll... i'll see you later Flora.. just call me once we're done and we'll go get something to eat.. or something.." she aded as she walked past kojuuro..'so , now that the job is done, when i will get the creds for doing this?' 2-3 days I think.' Kojuuro said' you agreed on 500 creds right/ 5000 creds, was what i was offered' Emma said "oh.. well i'm have to go check. but you should get your money in that time period. thanks for your help miss emma.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I'll let you know!" said Flora cheerily as Emma left. "So, what did this physical entail again?" She asked the doctor, quite pleased with herself that despite Emma turning her on so intensely, she'd managed to retain at least the dignity of being flaccid for her follow-up exam. "And you can start whenever you're ready, Kojurro..." she assured him. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Mar 28 2016, 11:35 PM

a general heal exam, testing your strength, weight and general health ' the doctor replied ' we'll start with your hearing..' he pulled out a box full of stethoscopes.' then check to see about your privates and chest.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Okay!" Flora acquiesced. When Kojurro started prodding various parts of her body with the stethoscope, she took deep inhales and exhales like she remembered doing as a kid for the doctor.

Nick22

good' the doctor said ' ears are clear of obstruction, tongue looks healthy, as do lungs' forgive me' he pinched her chest and felt it ' good' no lumps..' now for your scrotum ' he felt down there ' again, no lumps.. ' after 15 minutes he stopped ' a;tohht every loks like its in order..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora shifted uncomfortably as Kojurro palpated her testicles for longer than she thought a doctor would need to locate any warning signs, but when he announced they were healthy she felt a wash of relief. It had been many years since she'd had a physical, the opportunity not really presenting itself while living on the fringes of society, so she was quite pleased to hear nothing had manifested since her youth. "Awesome," she grinned. "Sounds like I get a clean bill of health! Thank you Kojurro!"She glanced at her robe. She now has a few hours break before her next test, and she was suddenly feeling very hungry. She resolved to obtain a cell phone and some food before heading upstairs to see Emma. "Is there anything else, or can I see you later?" she smiled at Kojurro. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 7 2016, 04:16 PM

just need you to sign these pieces of ppr vrefifying that these were tests you agreed to' Kojuuro said giving her two pieces of pa[per and a pen ' once you sign them, you'll be free to go..' he said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora signed them hastily. "See you later doctor!" she exclaimed happily, putting her robe back on and returning the the hallway. Her stomach had that hollow ache that sneaks up out of nowhere, and all she could think of was locating somewhere to get some fast food. But to her surprise, her shortcut through the courtyard led her across Marita, Rose and Marie at the end of their tour. "Hi gals!" she beamed. "Say, can I interest y'all in some pizza?" she pointed at a small pizzeria with an outdoor patio. "It's such a beautiful day, we can eat outside and enjoy the sunshine!"

StarfallRaptor

On the patio of the pizzeria, a fox-esque figure sat, barely distinguishable beneath a set of odd, fitted metallic pieces and a dark, sleeveless robe. At Flora's exhuberant outburst, the figure's ears twitched a few times, and he looked up. Huh... Never seen those girls before. Wonder if they're the new arrivals I heard about yesterday... He mused, getting up and walking over towards them casually...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora saw a cloaked vulpine approaching them and waved in greeting. "Hiya!" she grinned. "My name's Flora. I'm new! Wanna join us for pizza?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 9 2016, 10:45 PM

StarfallRaptor

The cloaked vulpine froze for a moment when Flora noticed him, ears flicking upright as he tensed briefly. Okay.... So much for subtlety. How should I play this... Okay, be cool, be cool Yu... Play it cool... The cloaked figure smiled a little, walking over to the others. "Oh, hi there, Flora. A pleasure to meet you. Name's Yurei. But you can call me Rei. And I'd love to, if it's okay with the rest of you guys" He chuckled a little, smirking some.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Of course!" Flora beamed. "Let's go!" She quickly led the way into the pizzeria, arguably terminating the conversation less politely than she could have, but she was famished and wanted to at least get the seating and ordering happening ASAP. "Sit anywhere you'd like, darling," the waitress scribbled something in her notebook. "I'll be by to get your drinks in a jiffy, yeah?" "Oh, I'm ready to order now! I'll have a large slice of vegetarian pizza please!" Flora piped up excitedly. The waitress shrugged. "Alrighty." She glanced at the others, in case they were ready to order before even sitting down as well. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 10 2016, 01:43 AM

Nick22

Marita motioned to Yurei to take a seat at the stall first ' Hi Rei. I'm M.arita this is rose" rose smiled at him' and Marie. Flora here is our new roommate. full of energy, and very eager. comes with being a teen." she then turned to the waitress 'I'll have a diet coke if you have it, but as for pizza i'll need a few minutes to look at the menu..- rose took a seat across from Flora, and set the brochures that she had picked up as part of the tour of the facility, down on the table in front of her.' she grabbed one pf the pizza menus and began looking through it.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei sat down next to Flora, casually flicking a menu open. "I'll have some mint tea, if you have any.". He said to the waitress, leaning back in his chair. "So, haven't seen you ladies around before. I presume that you just got here recently." He chuckled, glancing around a little...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Drink for you, miss?" the waitress turned to Flora. "Hmmm, ooh yeah how about something stiff." Flora glanced at the menu but was not able to immediately locate the drinks. "What's the strongest thing you got?" "Uh...beer." "K, that'll do!" Flora turned back to Yurei as the waitress left to grab their drinks. "We got here super recently, just yesterday in fact! Hardly even know my way around. Already took my first tests though, and I'm loving what I've seen so far! This apartment and this gig was really a lifesaver;" she smiled sincerely. "We were in a bad place. What about you? Are you a test subject here?" She hoped he said yes; she hadn't seen another test subject, and would love a chance to talk to someone going through the same thing as her. She resolved to try and become this person's friend.

Nick22

this isnt 20 questions, Flora' Rose said ' let him get a word in edgewise' she laughed . ' Yes we are new to this town ' she said " we've moving from town to town, trying to find jobs.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled a little, raising an eyebrow at Flora. "Bad place, huh? Guess it's a good thing you made your way here. After all, the world would be a lesser place without such lovely ladies in it" He joked, then seemingly faded and fell through his seat, disappearing for a moment before seeming to pop out of the ground behind Rose and Marita, then repeating the trick and appearing behind Flora. "Am I a test subject here? Well, I suppose you could put it that way" He said coolly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Eep!" gasped Flora in surprise when appearing behind her. "Holy crap that is so cool!" Her mind filled with questions and she had to mentally restrain herself from launching into an excited interrogation; as Rose had warned her, now was merely the time for initial pleasantries. She resolved to keep a lid on her natural curiosity to avoid intimidating potential friends. The waitress returned with drinks. "Y'all need another minute to look at the menu?" she asked. Somehow Yurei's trick hadn't phased her; she'd been working here long enough to have witnessed the test subjects do plenty of weird things. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 11 2016, 12:28 AM

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled, slipping back into his seat with a small smirk. "It would be, if I could actually keep it under control and not have to wear a device to keep me from falling through everything. Being able to wear clothes would be a nice change of pace, too." He joked, then smiled at the waitress. "Chicken Alfredo pizza for me. And whatever the ladies want, too. I'll cover it" He replied glibly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Wow..." breathed Flora. "But it's so strong! Even if you don't have control over it, you're like an X-Man. I have the opposite problem; apparently I'm like, barely psionic, so I'm kinda lucky they're even interested in keeping me here." She brushed the fur on her forearm. "My power is I can change my appearance, but it takes forever for the new look to grow in. We're talking months. But my pink fur, my body shape and...some other oddities...are all natural, I've never have any cosmetic surgeries or implants." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 12 2016, 04:20 PM

Yurei cast an appreciative glance over Flora's body, grinning a little."So, that's all natural, hmm? Well that's a pleasant surprise."He joked, then, glancing around a bit, undid the upper chest of his cloak and pulling it open to reveal a large, black metal device implanted into the center of his chest, which pulsed faintly with red energy."See, you're lucky that your power is fairly minor. You don't have to worry about it going awry and possibly killing you."He said, closing his cloak and looking away...

Nick22

when did you get the implant? Marita asked , gazing with interest at it before Yurei covered himself. " i'm guessing it was to control your powers , huh?

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"HmMMM, didn't think about that," Flora mulled over. "That would be really scary. Good thing the scientists are watching over you."The waitress arrived with Flora's pizza, and the folf tucked into it ravenously. "Ohhh, thank fuck," she gasped through mouthfuls of dough. "I am so hungry!" Downing an open mouthful with a heavy swallow of beer, she hiccuped painfully but with a sigh of satisfaction. "Oh my god, yes. This is the second-best pizza I have ever eaten."

StarfallRaptor

Yurei nodded at Marita. "They stuck this thing in me after one of the tests went wrong, and they had to cut me out of a ceiling I had gotten part of myself stuck in. Not a fun experience. And yeah, it inhibits my powers a bit, keeps them from kicking in involuntarily"As the food arrived, he turned to his plate with a grin, looking back up at Flora."Only the second best, huh? Well, now you've gone and gotten my curiosity up as to what the best was"He chuckled..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora grinned back. "Oh, that's quite a story."So while they waited for the other's food to arrive, Flora told the tale of the time she visited a farm in the middle of nowhere.

StarfallRaptor

As Flora recounted her story, Yurei had to stop eating several times, either to chuckle lightly, or occasionally simply stare at Flora with a fascinated grin. "HmMMM, well I can see how this would come in second to that much fun...". He smirked as she finished her tale. Under the table, his free hand idly sought Flora's lap as he grinned conspiratorially at her...

Nick22

How did your tests go today Flora?' Marie asked as she took a bite of the stuffed crust pepporoni pizza she had ordered ' i Trust everything is in working condition.."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes widened in surprise at Yurei's touch, but she quickly composed herself and maintained eye contact with Marie. "They went perfect!" she replied happily. Under the table, her bare foot slithered forward to brush against Yurei's shoe. "I met this adorable girl named Emma! She's a fashion model but she's working at the facility to pay for school. I was going to meet her after lunch if you want to come along!" Her toes playfully snuck under the hem of Yurei's robe to tickle his bare skin, but above the table she paid him no heed. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 14 2016, 05:11 PM

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled a little, teasing his hand ever closer to Flora's crotch as he grinned at her."While I think I'd be hard pressed to find someone as adorable as the ladies in with right now, I suppose it would do me some good to meet a few more people, eh? I suppose my training can wait a bit" He said smoothly, teasingly placing a foot on Flora's...

Nick22

Sure, You can introduce her to us' marita said ' Let me guess she was one of those who administered your tests and yu two hit it off? You're getting bettr Flora!' the old saying goes " theres no better teacher than experience' and i'd like to learn more about her" How long has she been working there, for starters?"- so thats what you mean by fun' Marie smirked as she heard floras story.' Well Well i certainly agree."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I think she just started work here," Flora pondered. "At least, she said I was the first patient she ever worked with. She performed a very...specific function during my physical, but it didn't feel like one that would require special training."The rest of her mind was trying to figure out how bold Yurei planned on getting with his hidden hand. He's certainly not one to beat around the bush, she thought with amusement, spreading her legs somewhat and letting the bottom of her robe come a bit undone under the table. Thank god there's a tablecloth... "Uh, how did your tour of the facility go, Marie?" she asked quickly, fighting to keep her voice level. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 14 2016, 10:12 PM

Nick22

Pretty boring actually" Marie replied as sh took a sip of her drink " The woman who was guiding us had a monotone voice, it was annoying afterawhile, so i tuned her out. Likely missed half of what she was talking about."

StarfallRaptor

Yurei smiled a bit as he felt Flora shift her legs, lightly tracing his hand along her inner thigh and brushing it gently against her balls. "Yeah, the tours here kinda blow. Maybe after we meet up with Emma, I could give you guys a more interesting one." He said with a coy smirk...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"That would be awesome, Yurei!" Flora nodded quickly but took a slightly irregular breath. "You can show us...all the secret places that they wouldn't on the guided tour!" Her stomach did a belly flop as she fought to mask any reaction to his ever-so-slight stimulation. Thankful that her pink fur masked a faint blush, she grabbed her beer and took a long swig, using the seconds to get her bearings. "What were some of the places you saw on the guided tour, Marita?" she asked, as her foot rubbed the back of Yurei's leg.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled a little, stroking Flora's shaft experimentally as he grinned over at her. "Oh, you bet I'll show you the parts the staff would NEVER show on the guided tours. Not like I blame 'em. They're of little interest to the general populace, after all." He smirked, shifting a bit to contain his excitement at the feeling of Flora's foot on his leg...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's heart was racing and sweat was pooling on her brow. Under his massaging grasp she quickly felt herself getting hard. I hope we don't stand up to go on this tour soon... she thought nervously. She shot a glance at Yurei and noticed his shit-eating grin. Having fun, are we? she thought mischievously. Enjoying making me squirm? Let's see how YOU handle yourself! Shifting her own hand under the tablecloth, she slid it between the folds of Yurei's robe to find out how much clothing he had on underneath.

Nick22

it was just a general tour of the facility ' Marita said. " its a big place, at least several miles in area. Needed a beter tour guide though." She turned to Yurei. " and how long have you been here Yurei, if i may ask? And.. you can stop playing footsie with Flora at any time you know' She smirked.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled nodding at Marita. "A few miles? This place is the size of a small city, and that's just the above-ground parts! I've been here for...huh, almost six years now, and I haven't even seen the whole place properly!" He smirked, then gave a small shrug with his free hand. "And I have no idea what you're talking about with footsies. I'm not doing anything of the sort~". He added, the well-fitted pants he wore tightening further at Flora's touch...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora brazenly kept up the footsies, though taking care to make less noise. Trying and failing to slip her fingers into Yurei's waistline due to how tight his pants were, she bit her lip in surprise when the waitress appeared from somewhere behind her without warning. "Let me take those plates," the waitress commented, placing receipts on the table. "You pay these up at the register when you're ready. Any of y'all need refills?" "No, I'm good," Flora said hastily. Did she see anything??? She returned her hand to her own lap, realizing that with lunch finishing, they were likely going to stand up soon. "Er, do we wanna do that tour now, then?" she said, smiling and hoping to maintain a straight face while Yurei continued stimulating her privates with impunity. She was getting more hot and bothered the longer it went. If he doesn't stop soon, I'm going to embarrass myself so badly... This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 21 2016, 01:17 PM

Nick22

"Flora, why dont you call your friend -- Emma, wasnt it?- and have us meet her at a place of her choosing. there should be a public phone near the entrance." marita said getting up and heading towards the counter to pay._ we're good thank you. the food was good .' Marie demurred to the waitress._ So Yurei what made you decide to come to this place? was it recommended to you? Rose asked him.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled a little, using his free hand to pull out a small cell phone and hand it over to Flora, grinning. "Here, you might want to use this instead. Little... Easier."He teased, rubbing his foot against Flora's as he circled her tip with his thumb, smirking idly as the waitress left, turning to Marita."Recommended? Heh, you could say that. Got placed here by some doctors after my powers started going somewhat out of control. Guess they were afraid I'd get seriously hurt if it kept up."He joked, tail flicking a bit behind him...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora took the phone. "T-thanks Yurei..." She didn't know if she dared calling Emma in the middle of being stimulated. But at least it'll give her an excuse to not stand up right away... Taking the slip of paper out of her pocket, she shakily dialed the number. "Hi Emma..." she said when the other picked up. "It's Flora! We're down at the pizzeria in the courtyard. We met another experiment called Yurei, he's going to give us a tour of the facility. Wanna join us?" She tried to sound chipper, but something of a moan got caught in her throat at the very end. She realized she was leaking pre-ejaculate on Yurei's hand, and the thought left her flushing ruby red, so badly she feared her pink fur wouldn't be enough to disguise it.

Nick22

so, yurei, how much do you get paid to let them run tests on you? 1000 creds a month?' Marita asked..- hi flora.. well I'm kinda in the middle of something.. my place is kinda a mess..' Emma said " Yurei huh? .. sounds like an interesting guy.. anyway I'll see if i can make it down there,. Could you give me like 15 minutes? i need to freshen up a bit any way..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"T-that sounds good! See you soon!" Flora hung up. Fifteen more minutes of this? I can't take that! "I, uh, need to go use the bathroom!" she stammered, wrapping her robe around herself. Cinching her belt tight, she hobbled to the restrooms, trying to keep herself from panting with pent-up lust.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei shrugged. "Closer to 1500 a month, plus they pay for my living here. Helps that I've involved myself on a project of theirs, though." He chuckled, standing up and shifting his robe slightly to make sure everything stayed hidden. "Anyhow, I think I'm gonna hit the can real fast before I give the grand tour." He added, stretching a bit...

Nick22

1500 is a good amount of creds' marita said ' and they give you a place to stay, which is nice too..' she stopped at yurei got up to use the bathroom. ' just.. um.. dont take too long.. because i want to see as much as possible before nighttime..'

StarfallRaptor

Yurei grinned. "Aww, but the nightlife is the best part!" He replied as he made his way towards the bathrooms, smirking to himself...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Fifteen minutes later, Flora came skipping back to the table. "Is Emma here yet?" she asked excitedly. "It's around the time she was going to show up, right? I hope I didn't miss her!"

Nick22

man you mjust have really had to go' Marie xsaid ' 15 minutes usually means diarrhea or something like that.. and she hasbnt arrived yt, but..' marie scanned the crowd and saw a wixen in a red dress coming towards them. here she cmes, I think" she sm,iled as Emma came up " Hi. Um is Flora-- oh there she is. Hi Flora, sorry I'm a little late. place was in worse shape than i thought. May I Join you ladies? i havent had much to eat.' emma admitted _ Not at all, please have a seat" Marita said " i'm Marita, thats rose and thats Marie. Floras told us that you're a new assistant here.. or.." Intern really. i was hired to help in running tests on Flora' Emma said taking a seat next to Rose and across from Flora." So far so good..'; she smirked' i havent cut off anything of Floras thats very important."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora grinned. "No trouble at all Emma! Glad you could make it! There's one more of us named Yurei, he's in the restroom right now, but he's the one going to give us an unofficial tour of the facility. You should grab a slice to go, their vegetarian pizza is to die for!"She pinched the shoulder of Emma's dress. "Oooh you look so pretty in this! What fabric is that?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 24 2016, 09:25 PM its cotton ' nothing really to get excited over.. as for pizza, well i'll just have a slice of pepperoni. stuffed crust, if they have it..' she said. i'll get it boxed to go, i suppose if you are all headed out..

StarfallRaptor

Just as Flora mentioned him, Yurei made his way back over to the table, grinning broadly. "Did I hear someone mentioning me over here?". He joked, nonchalantly pulling up his chair with a small chuckle. He gave a cheerful nod to Emma, smirking a bit."And you must be Emma. A real pleasure to meet you.". He added suavely, leaning back in his seat a bit..

Nick22

you must be yurei. charmed ' emma said.' i'm just here to say hi and meet some of Floras friends" she said as the waitress brought her a menu..' a dietcoke and a dtuffed crust pepperoni.. to go please' emma requested.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

The waitress brought her a triangle cardboard box containing a large slice of pepperoni, as well as the drink. "The gentleman asked that it be put on his bill, so you're good to go," she nodded. "Thanks Yurei!" Flora smelled the aroma of spiced pepperoni. "Can you eat while you walk Emma? We should get this tour started!"

Nick22

well thank you yurei. next time you need a drink, i'll get it for you. well, within reason. I'm not made of money" she laughed" i'll try , Flora. Pizza really is supposed to be enjoyed sitting down.. Its not like fries, which you can eat on the go..

StarfallRaptor

Yurei smiled a little, giving a nonchalant wave of his hand."Oh, don't worry about it. It's the least I can do, honestly.". He said lightly, grinning languidly. "Now, what sorts of sights would you guys like to see around here?". He asked, humming a small tune to himself.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Knowing the sights is your job, silly!" giggled Flora. "I haven't seen anything except my room and the insides of various labs. How about you show us what residents do for fun around here?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 24 2016,

StarfallRaptor

Yu grinned, giving Flora a playful wink. "Hey, just wanted to know what sorta sights you wanted to see is all~". He chuckled, then pulled his phone out and began thumbing through some things. "Oh, hey, while we're on the tour, I think one of my friends would love to meet you all, so we'll take a quick detour, alright?" He asked, sounding somewhat more serious...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Awesome!" No time like the present to meet someone new. As they walked, Flora couldn't help but wonder what sort of person Yurei would choose to hang out with. He was such an oddball himself, she doubted they'd qualify as normal.

Nick22

Emma got her stuff and followed flora and Yurei out of the diner. she casually sipped on her soda as she flowed the lead group.. 'so you girls friends with dlora?' she said ' yeah we've known her awhile ' Marita said.'nice girl, she really id..' Yeah i got a good sense of that while running.. tests on her..

StarfallRaptor

Yurei smiled at the group, leading them to a large, secured door. "Right, so, I suppose I should warn you guys that this area's a bit off-limits to the general populace, so don't get too shocked by what you see." He said, looking around for a second before slipping into the ground. A few seconds later, the door clicked open, swinging soundlessly to reveal a dimly-lit cement hallway. Yu smiled a little and gestured behind himself. "So, uh... Welcome to the specialized containment wing". He chuckled nervously...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

The dreary cellblock looked like a prison-style hall, with reinforced transparent windows into each cell. The cells were nice but the atmosphere was sterilized and the lights were kept low. "Wait, so there are test subjects in these?" stammered Flora. She crept close to one. "Subjects like us? Did they do something wrong?"

StarfallRaptor

Yurei nodded a bit. "Yeah. These are specialized holding rooms for psionics whose powers are considered dangerous to others. Among others, I know at least one in here's power is..." A muffled explosion sounded through the cell hallway as Yu flinched a bit. "He can cause things to explode." He said, gently placing a hand on Flora's shoulder. "Trust me, it's for peoples safety.". He said gently, as he made his way down the cellblock...

Nick22

So these are the ones who'd be a danger to society if allowed out. Charming.' Marita said. Rose got quick glances of the some of the various occupants through peepholes-one was drawing complicated formulas on the wall. another one was tossing a fireball between hands. as he caught it it turned into a snowball, then became a fireball again in the other hand. _ Emma remained quiet as she walked alongside Rose " so which guy did you want us to see Yurei" Emma asked as they walked along.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora was looking at the cells, a feeling of apprehension trickling down her spine. She should have realized that a facility built to house psionics would require a wing like this, but it clashed so harshly with Sartonic's friendly resort-like image that it got her worrying. She was a test subject here, after all. What if her powers ever grew dangerous? Could she one day find herself in a cell down here?" "Wotcha lookin' at?" sneered a rat when her eyes passed over him, making her jump. Unlike the others, he had a very oddly-designed metallic chair that he was resting in. It seemed to be made of spoons. "Nothing, sorry!" stammered Flora, backing up. The rat pressed himself up against the cell wall. "It's not polite, you know. These are our homes. Say you're sorry." "Sorry!" "I'll forgive you this once," he leered. "But only if you give me something. A pebble, a strip of tissue. Anything at all." Flora shook her head anxiously, backing up quickly. The rat observed Marita and the others. "Oh, I'm so lonely...All this old man craves is some material possessions. Could you spare me any objects at all?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 26 2016, 06:33 PM

StarfallRaptor

Yurei walked back over, fishing in his pocket for something, finally producing a set of ball bearings as he stepped over to the window. "Hey, old man, go easy on 'em. They're new here." He chuckled, opening a small door and sliding the bearings into a small tray, which slid into the cell as he shut the small door. "Here, pinched these for ya. Figured you'd appreciate them." He said with a smile. Turning around, he gestured slightly towards the end of the hall. "C'mon. She's down here." He said softly, smiling faintly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

The rat's eyes lit up as he palmed the pair of ball bearings. "Aw yes, this will do nicely...thank you," he said gratefully. Flora couldn't help but glance as he rolled the four (four?) bearings in his hand. Crossing over to his wash basin, the rat poured the eight bearings in and started lying contentedly in it. Dozens of bearings covered him, slowly forming a metallic pool of gleaming silver balls. Flora finally tore her sight away when they'd gone too far down the hall, and quickly shifted her focus to the cell that Yurei was leading them to. At the end of the hall, Yu stopped, knocking lightly on the window. "Hey, Taga. It's me. I uh... Brought some friends down to meet you." He said, smiling softly as the lights in the room flicked on, revealing a very old-looking female cat sitting in a large, plush rocking chair. She looked up at the window, and a large, warm smile crossed her features as she did. "Ah, Yurei! So you found time to come visit little old me, did you? Are these the friends you mentioned?". She asked, voice weathered and cracking a bit with age as she stood up and shuffled her way over to the window, her long shawl and dress making it look almost as if she were floating...

Nick22

So why are you in here , mam? Emma asked " What sort of abilities do you possess? You have to shave some sort of ability or they wouldnt have put you in here.' _ Marita took a look at some of the newspaper clipping which were on the wall, many of them were yellowed with age.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora swallowed her trepidation and managed a friendly smile. "H-hi Taga. My name's Flora, I'm the newest test subject here at Sartonic." She didn't want to make as bad an impression as she'd given the rat. Plus with Yurei being so friendly to each of them, they had to be decent people, right? "Pleased to meet you."

StarfallRaptor

Taga smiled a little, looking at each in turn, settling on Emma once she asked about her powers."My, my aren't you the curious bunch~. I'm in here because my power causes me to devour the emotions of anyone who's around me. It can be... Very harmful. But you don't have to worry, this cell keeps me from affecting anyone outside it.". She reassured, then turned her gaze towards Flora."Oh, child. You don't have to be afraid of me. Welcome to the facility. I'm sure you'll fit right in, and I think you'll enjoy your stay here.". She said lightly, as Yurei opened the small window and slipped a few chocolate bars in. "Here, Taga. Bright you a few of your favorites."He said, and she gave him a warm smile in return."You're to sweet, Yu. You know you don't have to trouble yourself for me"She said softly..

Nick22

so you.. absorb the emotions from other people. so.. are you a vampire? emma asked ' Vampires suck blood.. not energy or emotion 'Marita said to her.' So how long have you been in here? She asked Taga' Curiosity, you understand."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora smiled and nodded, glad that she seemed to be making a good impression. But inwardly, she wondered whether Taga was as friendly as she seemed. Her power didn't seem that bad, and it felt to her like Taga should be allowed to live normally in the facility, and the fact that she didn't was unsettling. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 29 2016, 07:29 AM

StarfallRaptor

Taga smiled softly, chuckling a bit. "Oh, I've been in here a very, very long time.

Almost since the place first opened up. I came here after I realized that my power could be dangerous to others.". She said softly, delicately opening a candy bar and taking a small bite...

Nick22

so you took precautions then. Smart. How many others with.. 'abilities, for lack of a better term, are here currently? Or do you not know that? you have been here, the longest, or nearly so, by your own admission' Marita said, looking at Taga with Interest

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Why don't you just...control it then?" Flora knew she was being impolite but couldn't resist learning more about someone who had trouble with their powers. "Just don't manipulate people's emotions, and then you could live wherever you wanted instead of...trapped in this cell." She shifted her feet, hoping Taga didn't think she was insulting her home like the rat did. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Apr 30 2016, 05:31 PM

StarfallRaptor

Taga chuckled softly."If only it were that simple, dearie. I've tried to keep my powers under control, but if I allowed myself to lapse for even a moment, then they would slip out and endanger people again. I decided that it would be best to stay someplace where I could work to minimize that risk. Most of the people here are much the same. We've willingly agreed to stay here until our powers can be kept in check and we won't endanger people. And miss, as to how many of us there are, there's a dozen or so of us. Each of us with abilities that can be very dangerous if unchecked. But we all are reasonably happy down here."She said pleasantly, doing a small gesture around herself..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"So...most of you chose to come down here?" asked Flora, feeling relief wash over here. "You won't forced by the labs?" That was good to hear; her powers were very minor and she was prepared to be more than cooperative with Sartonic in every way. She shifted her feet. This cell block still unnerved her, but it wasn't as bad now that she'd gotten to know some of the inhabitants a little better.

Nick22

fewer than i thought' Marita nodded.' how old are you. if i may ask.? you look like you re at least 90 years old._ well i don;t know about the rest of you, but i'm ready to go' Emma said.

StarfallRaptor

Taga smiled wryly at Marita's question. "How old am I? Hehee, I've lost track, to be honest. I suppose your guess is as good as mine, isn't it?"She said lightly, then looked over at Emma."Ah, of course. I didn't mean to keep you. You must have a lot to do and see, being new here. I'll let you get on with it! But thank you for coming to visit an old spinstress like me, all of you."She said, making her way back towards her chair before pausing and turning back around."Oh, but, Flora, dearie? Could you stay a moment longer? I know you're a bit uneasy, but I promise you'll be fine. And Yu, no eavesdropping, child! I swear, you're just like a little boy sometimes.". She teased, to which Yurei gave a coy shrug."Yeah, yeah, Baachan. I won't snoop this time. Sheesh, I do it once and you never have let me hear the end of it."He retorted, leading the group back down the hall, though not before giving Flora's hand a reassuring squeeze...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora nodded nodding encouragingly as her friends retreated down the hallway. "What is it, ma'am?" she asked politely, walking up to the cell door and placing her face against the bars so she could get a good look at her conversationalist. Not knowing how sensitive the talk was going to be, she decided to give Taga the most privacy possible considering the situation.

StarfallRaptor

Taga smiled softly, shuffling up to the door."Please, you don't need to be so formal with me. I just wanted to talk to you about Yurei. I think he's rather smitten with you.". She said lightly, then looked a bit more contemplative."I just wanted to let you know that, as much as he acts cheerful and light-hearted, the poor child's been through a lot, and tries to carry the burdens all himself. He means well, though. And he loves with all his heart. So please, do take care of him."She said softly, her voice gentle and almost maternal...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"A relationship? Already? But we just met..." Flora answered nervously. She bit her lip at the warning that Yurei wasn't as carefree and content as she thought. "Thank you for the advice," she continued, smiling softly. "I'll be careful around him, the last thing I want to do is hurt anybody." But if Taga was right (and as a psionically-powered empath, Flora was inclined to believe her), Yurei is going to have to be patient. Flora wasn't yet comfortable entering into relationships with anybody beyond the 'friends with benefits' level. And even then he's going to have to share with Marita, Rose, Marie, and Emma for Flora's time...hopefully she'd be able to make it all work. Sexual relationships are complicated... she thought with unexpected despair, feeling a slight knot in her stomach. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on May 3 2016, 01:55 AM

StarfallRaptor

Taga placed her hand on the bars, smiling gently"Oh, dearie, I didn't mean it as something so serious. He cares about you immensely, but I don't believe he'll try to make anything more than that until you two know each other better. But thank you for listening to a doddering old lady like me. It's just that, when he looked at you, I could feel something from him that I hadn't felt in a long time. He's been so very closed off since... Well, it's not my place to say. I think that you two will be good for each other. So please, don't despair."She said gently, giving Flora a small smile...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora returned the smile. "Yurei's a good guy. I like him a lot and I hope to get to do a lot of fun things with him. So I'm glad he's got your vote of confidence. It's good to hear from someone who knows him really well." She put her hand over Taga's. "I'm sure we'll come visit you a lot," she added brightly. "Yurei seems to have a lot of friends down here! I've got to run finish my tour, but I'm sure I'll have plenty of opportunities to get to know you better." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on May 3 2016, 03:11 PM

Nick22

Emma waited for Flora by the wing entrance, hoping she would not take too long..- so whats next on the tour Yurei' Riose asked ' will you show us your flat? She asked.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora headed back towards the exit, but stopped when she crossed the cell containing the old rat, who was still enjoying a ball bearing bath. "Ummm, hello again," she added, determined to make a better impression before she left. "Sorry about before. I'm new, learning how things work around here." "Same deal as before," he said dismissively. "I'll forgive you when you give me something." Flora rifled through her pockets and found only the scrap of paper containing Emma's phone number. Tearing a decently-sized blank portion off the bottom, she let that flutter through the bars. "How about that?" The rat's eyes lit up. "I'll wallpaper my room with this!" He said excitedly. Leaping out of the bath, he grabbed the paper excitedly and began twirling as white confetti sprung forth from his hand. Flora took that opportunity to leave while she was ahead. "Hi all!" she said brightly when she found them waiting outside the cell block. "I think I got the rat to like me. Now, where are we going next?"

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled some, giving Flora a wink. "Heh, I was thinking I could show you guys the entertainment district! Shopping, arcades, you name it!" He said with a coy grin and wink to Flora. "After all, I figure you guys would like to know where to get some neat threads and some fun." He said jokingly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes lit up. "Ooh, sounds good!" she exclaimed. She could hardly contain herself during the walk to the entertainment district. "What part should we go to first?" she asked as it drew close.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled a bit, giving Flora a smirk. "Well I was figuring I'd let you take the lead, shop around. I'll tag along, follow your lead and pick up the tab. I mean, if you'd like." He said with a smile, doing a sweeping gesture towards the large, open promenade...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

The receptionist looked up. "Destination?" she asked as she saw the sextet of them heading for the exit to the lab. "Oh, we just wanted to see the city...if that's alright of course." Flora shifted her feet. The receptionist looked at her bathrobe, which wasn't doing that great with all the wear and tear. "I hope you head to one of the clothing stores first," she commented, printing out 5 day passes in the form of little wristlets, like the ones in hospitals. "Keep the bracelet visible at all times; and if anyone asks you're legally required to inform them of your position at Sartonic Labs." "Position? What's mine?" asked Flora. "Test subject." Flora nodded in understanding, and then left the lab to return to the city she'd only seen during the day. Despite this, she couldn't have been prepared for the flurry of lights and activity. Flora gasped at the thriving Indian nightlife outside the facility. There seemed to be more people on the streets now than during the day. The weather was chilled but the smell of food carts, the heat lamps in bazaars, and the bright sparks of glowsticks punctuating the gloomy streetlamp-lit streets turned the city into a haven of warmth and light among the endless expanse of desert. Flora excitedly ran to the nearest bazaar to see what they were selling. She saw rows and rows of scarves; fine silky garments studded with gems and brooches. "Are these real diamonds?" she asked excitedly. "They are 24-carat," the shopkeeper nodded. "Five dollars each." "Five dollars for scarves with real diamonds?" gasped Flora. "That's insane! Ooh if only I had the money!" The next shop has shish kebabs grilling behind a clear plastic screen. Flora's stomach rumbled, and she asked against hope if there were free samples. The kebab guy laughed and said no, so she moved on. Her first actual purchase came when she bought a pair of shorts from a street vendor. "I'm feeling a little exposed out here in just a robe..." she admitted to her friends as she slipped them on in an alleyway. Sounds further down the alleyway intrigued her, and she left the beaten path to find children playing Kick the Can in a more residential district. "Can I play?" she asked excitedly, but kids merely took their game elsewhere, giving her weird looks. They did forget a glowstick, so Flora claimed it and returned to the main streets looking slightly less out of place with her new acquisitions. "Oooh let's get some fireworks!" she exclaimed excitedly when she saw some men holding out rows of them on a stand. "This is so cool, its like nothing is illegal! Can we get weed out here?" While they watched, one customer who was smoking a cigarette picked up a firework and examined it. The shopkeepers urgently demanded he put it down, but the cigarette got too close and as he dropped it in fright, it ignited, causing the entire stand to go up in smoke. Flora and the onlookers cheered at the brilliant display of color and streaks of light that lit up the sky as the owners and customer ran for their lives, cursing loudly. "Does this happen every night?" Flora wondered in amazement as she continued drinking in the activity and excitement around here. "It's like a completely different city at night. This is so incredible...." They were almost back at the lab. She gave Yurei a crooked smile. "Well, I've pretty much led the whole night, like you were hoping. Was there anything you'd wanted to see before we head back?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on May 6 2016, 10:21 PM

StarfallRaptor

Yu chuckled a little, giving a small, noncommittal shrug, while keeping his hands hidden behind his back. "Well, I come down here a lot, so I've been just about everywhere. Though, if you ladies are into arcade games, there's an especially nice one a few blocks from here. Free games, and some really cool music, plus a dance floor. Bu~t before that..." He chuckled, showing that he had gone and grabbed a selection of the scarves

Flora had been eyeing earlier, as well as a to-go box of kebabs."Figured I'd grab these for you. The scarves are for all of you, so I figured I'd let you four pick the ones you like."He said lightly, smiling broadly.Smooth, you idiot. Blowing money because you like a girl. AGAIN. And you know just how this'll end, too. You'll end up alone again, just like before. After all, she was right about you. You're not worth anything to anyone, and especially aren't something a person could love...For a brief second, Yurei's grin faltered, but he quickly tried to brush his thoughts aside, returning to his normal smiling demeanor...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Oooooh!" squealed Flora excitedly. "I want the purple one! No, the silver one, it's got garnets! Are these garnets?" she asked the seller. "Since there is no refunds, I'm comfortable telling you that they're all glass," he replied with a snicker. "Well purple it is then," Flora stuck her tongue out at him and threw it around her neck. "Goes with my fur. And let's do arcades!" As someone who lived most of her life completely broke, video games were always out of her budget, though she'd always been interested in them when she was a boy. She entered the venue and quickly decided on the one with two burly men punching each other to death. "Who wants to get their ass kicked at Street Fighter 7?" she challenged Emma and Yurei, determined fire in her eyes.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei grinned slyly."Oh, a challenge? Well, I dunno, I find challenges much more fun when there's a little wager involved. Care to make it a bet?"He teased, rolling his neck and bouncing a bit to the sound of the music...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's eyes narrowed. "What you prepared to wager, mister?" she grinned competitively. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on May 6 2016, 11:15 PM

Nick22

'i'll play.' Marita volunteered ' so street fighter huh ' you'll likrly beat me. i stick to PC games ' she said." whats the wager?' She said " something simple, perhaps?

StarfallRaptor

Yu chuckled."Tell you what. I'll let you and Marita duke it out first, give you a practice round. Now, when I win against you, I'm thinking I'll give you another tour, this time of one of my... Favorite parts of the city. Now if you do win... I'll do absolutely ANYTHING you'd like. Sound good?"He shot back, giving an equally competitive grin, then throwing in a sly wink...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Deal," Flora smiled. She quickly deposited the coins to get a match and picked M. Bison, a military man with an awesome hat and cape. She waited for Marita to pick her character, as the counter counted down to begin the fight...

Nick22

Marita selected Ken, from the choices available " alright Flora if I win, you have to kiss me on the lips, But if I lose, I have to kiss you. Best of 3, alright?' She smirked.' Sound Like a deal? Emma was warching the game with interest' You ever play video games?' Marie asked her " No, not really, i would watch my brothers play though . what about you?' no, never was into video games, was more interested in dolls growing up."Marie admitted ' i'll just watch, if its all the same.-

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"You're on!" Flora agreed, as the game flashed: Round one...FIGHT!Flora immediately leaped forward and punched...or tried to. Her character crouched, then ducked. She hit another button and M. Bison jumped. Ugh, how do I hit? she thought, hitting buttons intently as a bead of sweat formed on her forehead.But unbeknownst to either girl, Marita had picked the easiest character to play in the game, and after three rounds M. Bison slumped to the ground a thoroughly defeated loser while the announcer congratulated Ken on his victory. "You got me..." admitted Flora. Stepping forward, she pressed her mouth against Marita's, lips trembling only somewhat at the injustice of how badly she'd lost.As she came out of the kiss, she looked at Yurei and bit her cheek defiantly. "But I'm not gonna lose to you, Yurei! I was just warming up!" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on May 6 2016, 11:50 PM

StarfallRaptor

Yu smirked, lightly cracking his knuckles as he took his place, before leaning over to give Flora a quick smooch on the cheek."Well then, giving you a bit of luck won't hurt, will it?"He teased, tail flicking a bit...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora quickly dropped the coins in and picked a new character. This time she went with Poison; she wasn't sure why, but destiny was telling her she had a connection with this character. "I don't need luck," she challenged aggressively. "Pick your poison..."

StarfallRaptor

Yu stuck his tongue out, flicking through a few fighters before settling on Yang."Poison chosen~. Hope you don't mind seeing another side of the city~"He retorted, tail lightly touching hers for a moment...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora gritted her teeth as the game announced Round one...FIGHT!Jamming the joystick forward, Flora growled as the character ducked and combat-rolled. "Goddammit..." she muttered as Poison tried some grappling move that wasn't the basic punch she was hoping for. Occasionally she landed a kick or something, but for the most part the only real trick she figured out was dodging Yurei's attacks with a spinning jump. Flora had lived a teenage life almost void of video games of any type so even things as basic as movement were struggles, much less combos or timing counter-attacks. At times she suspected Yurei was going easy on her, but it didn't matter because after three painful rounds Posion lay crumpled in the corner while the announcer praised Yang for an almost flawless victory. Flora couldn't stop a pent-up growl from escaping her throat. "Fucking christ!" she burst out, almost punching the machine in frustration. Yurei smiled a bit, reaching over and giving Flora a friendly, one-armed hug. "Hey, easy there. That wasn't half bad! You're a quick study, and I bet in a few weeks you'll be kicking butts and taking names. As a matter of fact, I think I'm gonna call this a draw and give you a free pass to do whatever you want to me. Plus, you and I'll take a tour of my favorite part of the city. Sound good?" He said amicably, tail rubbing itself against Flora's...

As Flora felt her blood pressure return to normal she realized she was making a bad impression on all her friends. Taking a deep breath, she counted quietly to ten to get a hold of herself. "Sorry sorry...I'm kind of a competitive sort..." she admitted. "You don't need to pretend I wasn't awful. I got my ass completely handed to me." She glanced at the exit. "Looks like we're going to that place you wanted sometime soon. Probably not tonight, I think everyone's getting tired," she glanced at Emma in particular, who was showing signs of exhaustion. "We should probably get back to the labs. Is there anywhere else on the tour, Yurei?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on May 7 2016, 08:10 AM

Yu smiled, rubbing Flora's arm lightly. "Nah. Well...not on this tour, at least~" He teased, grinning coyly. "But I do mean what I said. You get one free "Yurei'll do anything you want" pass." He added, straightening his hair a bit...

its ok Flora " you tried your best' Marita said patting her on the shoulder in consolation " here' the dark red lips locked together and Marita kissed Flora flush on the lips. the great Dane put her tongue gently into the folks mouth and massaged her girlfriends tongue with her own. Emma blushed as she watched the kiss. Marita however acted as if this was not a very big deal, and no one outside the group paid much attention. the kiss lasted for 15 seconds before Marita pulled away' Make sure you give Flora her tongue back, the girl needs it' Rose smirked. You just kissed her right in front of everybody. Smack on the lips' Emma said and Marita looked at her" Emma dear, if you love someone, and are comfortable in your own skin, then snogging them in public is expected as a matter of course.PDA, my dear, or Public Display of Affection. Of course there are limits. we're not going to makeout while au natural of course, they frown upon that here."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's pent-up resentment from the game evaporated as Marita suddenly French-kissed her in front of everyone in the arcade. Her heart skipped a beat and time seemed to stand still as Marita gave her a much more passionate kiss than the one Flora gave after losing to her at Street Fighter. Flora's face was beet red and she could only stammer gibberish for almost half a minute after Marita broke the kiss. "Guess you, uh, don't mind that I lost to you then?" she babbled, crossing her legs and wrapping her robe more securely around her. "Between you and Yurei, I just got all the prizes we bet regardless..." Part of her felt embarrassed at how openly Marita had just displayed their love in public, but she was right, there's nothing wrong with public displays of affection...was there? Yurei had begun to make his way towards the arcade door before Marita had kissed Flora, turning just in time to catch the tail end of the kiss. For a moment, he froze, then turned and slipped out the door quietly. As he made his way back towards the labs, he chuckled bitterly to himself. "Hah...way to go, Yurei. Way to set yourself up to fail again... Maybe she was right. Maybe I'm not worth anything..." He said softly to himself, kicking a small stone as he walked..."Maybe she was right"? No, there's no maybe about it. All you are is a freak and a monster. Not like anyone could ever love something like you. You don't even have a right to be alive, and definitely don't deserve happiness. You're nothing but a tool and a mistake. Yurei kept walking down the path silently, quietly blinking back any trace of tears...

Nick22

" Yurei?' where are you going?' Marie called out as she ran down the trail after hm " You said that you still had some things to show us ' the retriever said giving Yurei a smile. ' and you're a better tour guide than that woman who gave us the official tour. she was boring as dry paint.."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

It felt like Flora barely had time to blink and two of their number were gone. "Err, where'd everyone go?" she asked. She glanced at the exit of the arcade, completely clueless as to why Yurei and Marie had dashed off so quickly. Already they were out of sight. "We...going somewhere else?" Yurei turned, quickly regaining his composure and smirking some. "Heh. It's getting late, and I'm sure you guys had plans for the night, and I'd hate to get in the way." He said with a small, halfhearted chuckle...

Nick22

we don't have any plans ' Marie assured him" Come on, lets go get some dinner.. my treat.' She smiled at him. 'don;t worry about Marita. shes always been open with her affections, shes planted kisses on me like that on more than one occasion. Girl believes in public snogging what can I say. don't read anything into it. Doesnt mean that flora doesn't like you, or that you have to compete with any of us for Floras affections. Your relationship with Flora is between you and her. we'll know about it, of course since we're a small close group, but you want to take her out on a date, none of us are going to stop you. we're fine with it, in fact. next time you see Flora, snogg her like Marita did. that will ease matters on that score.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Uh, hello?" Flora slowly came walking down the trail, looking confused. "Guys...?" She hadn't noticed their location due to the darkness; they were halfway between the labs and the city, and the faint dim of the city streetlamps could only do so much this far into the lonely desert dunes. "What happened...?"

StarfallRaptor

Yu chuckled sardonically."Nah, it's fine. Really. You guys go on ahead.". He said lightly, shaking his head a bit...

Nick22

maybe yuri had to head home to do something that he forgot to do' Marita said ' we'll catch up with them' Emma assured her._ Come on Yu, I insist. lets go get some food.' Marie said firmly' any place you would recommend?

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Well, we're going to be back at the lab soon enough...I hope they're not still in town." Flora and the girls had walked right past the pair in the dark. "Do either of you have Marie's phone number?" Flora asked Marita and Rose nervously. She didn't like the idea of her friends going missing out here in the desert.

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled softly, shaking his head."Honestly, I don't have any suggestions. Plus, I'm kinda tired. Think I'll just head home and crash for the night."He said firmly, turning and heading towards the lab again...

Nick22

Alright we'll pick you up in the morning then. say 8 am..' Marie said. - Yeah i have her phone number' marita said pulling out her phone and checking first to se she had reception, which she did. marita pulled out maries Number and dialed._ marie head her phone ring and pulled it out ' hi marita! where am i? Oh I'm with Yurei, hes headed back home to get some shut eye. ' i think you probably passed us as we were walking. just head to an inn or something and I'll meet up with you.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora nodded. "So Yurei's okay and y'all are staying in a motel?" she asked. "We could probably make the lab, you know. It's like ten minutes that way." She glanced at Emma. Flora started in surprise when she saw Yurei emerge from the lamplight. "Yurei, there you are!" she exclaimed. "Where did you go? Is everything okay?" Yu turned at the sound of Flora's voice, expression barely changing. "Oh. Hey, Flora. I just... Forgot something is all. Figured I shouldn't leave it here over night." He said coolly, barely making eye contact as he kept walking...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Oh, okay..." Flora bit her lip. She could sense something had changed since they last spoke. "Um, you wanna meet up sometime? Emma asked me to come to her room tonight, but tomorrow I'm free. We could, like, go for a swim or something."

StarfallRaptor

Yurei shrugged noncommittally, barely breaking his stride. "Sure. Whatever. Wouldn't want to get in the way, though." He said flatly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"In the way?" Flora put her hand on his shoulder. "Hey, you wouldn't be in the way. I like spending time with you. I'd totally hang out with you if I could, I know you wanted to show me the red light district tonight, but Emma just...asked sooner. That's all." She tried to give a reassuring smile but she doubted he could even see it in the dark. "I can make time for you both, trust me." Yurei looked at her hand for a moment, and then pushed it off his shoulder. "It's fine. No need to worry about me. You go and have fun." He said, voice momentarily icy as he walked off...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora gave up the chase and just stood there, blinking in surprise at how that conversation had gone. What is his problem? she wondered. Everything was fine at the arcade, he even won the video game, and then...what did I do wrong? She slowly made her way back to Emma. "So, um, do you still want to go to sleep? I'll walk to your room," she asked hopefully, the prospect of getting lucky marred only somewhat by her continued attempts to figure out what she'd done wrong with Yurei. He knows I'm not his girlfriend, right? I thought we both understood that just because we fooled around in the bathroom, I've got time commitments to my other friends... "Who knows," shrugged Flora. "Yurei's my friend, I'll talk to him later. I need to find a way to make sure he's comfortable with the situation." She noticed they'd reached the lab. The night receptionist let them in. "Hey is there anywhere in the labs that are open this time of night?" she asked. The man shook his head. "Sorry, the restaurants close at around ten. But you are welcome to use the kitchen to prepare your own food. There are pantries with basic foodstuffs like bread, rice, and pasta. Don't take too long though; eleven o'clock is curfew." "Curfew?" asked Flora. "All test subjects and unauthorized personnel are required to be in their rooms with the doors locked by eleven. Roaming the hallways is not permitted and there are punishments for being caught out after hours." Flora gulped. "Thanks for letting us know." They had about 45 minutes to prepare their food and get back to their rooms. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on May 18 2016, 08:13 PM

In another part of the residential area, Yurei sighed and chuckled to himself as he stepped into an elevator, hitting the button for one of the uppermost floors. However, as the elevator began to move, Yu allowed himself to phase out, slipping through the floor and descending into a set of old maintenance tunnels beneath the facility. Making his way down the dark, cold concrete halls, he finally turned and stepped into a caged section, filled with a variety of broken parts and miscellaneous other things that had been tossed aside. Shutting the mesh cage behind him, he made his way over to the corner farthest from the door, where a thin, worn blanket sat. Laying down and curling up against the wall, he slumped for a moment before repeatedly smacking his head into the metal pillar forming the corner. "Stupid, stupid, stupid! Thinking that I even had a chance with someone like that... What the hell came over me? Yurei, you goddamned idiot... Why don't I just learn? Some... Thing like me isn't something anyone could ever like, let alone care for!"He muttered, head slumping down against his chest. Heh... I hate to admit it, but I guess all my naysayers were right. That I'm just a damn fuckup who ruins everything... Guess that means my family was right about me being alive, too. Not like I ever really doubted that, though... He thought bitterly, picking up a shard of glass from the floor near him, holding it and turning it over in his hands a few times, then tightening his grip on it until it drew blood from his hand. Still clutching it as tight as he could, he pressed the edge of it to his wrist, drawing it across and leaving a jagged gash along his arm. He stared at the crimson welling up on his wrist and chuckled a bit."Heh... Why not do that a few more times... Just end it all here with all the other broken, useless things..."He said softly, staring at his reflection in the piece of glass...

Flora led the way to the kitchen. She wasn't particularly hungry so she simply poured herself a bowl of cornflakes with honey and sugar. She tried and failed to stifle a yawn. It had been a long day, and she'd gotten quite a few unexpected workouts while making new friends. Hopefully Emma didn't take too long preparing food, they needed to be in bed by lab shutdown. Emma came in a few minutes later carrying a pair of stuffed sandwiches ' Hope you like Meatballs" she said handing a sandwich to Flora. " we'll eat this, and thenm head to bed, I think" She smiled.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Thanks!" The sandwich wasn't microwaved, which Flora usually did when making meat sandwiches, but this let her eat it faster because it didn't have to cool. Flora was only a little hungry, but the sandwich turned out to be perfect for that since it wasn't very filling. "Sounds good to me," she smiled. She borrowed Emma's phone to call Rose and Marita. "Guess you're gonna head back into town to find Marie and her hotel, right? You two have fun with that. Tomorrow we might head into town and find you, and we can all explore together during the day." After a particularly memorable night, Flora's eyes snapped open at exactly 5 am. She had no idea why she woke up that early; she never woke up that early, especially not after an insane workout like she'd gotten she'd gotten last night. And why was her heart beating so fast? Was it love? No. It was anxiety. Flora sighed silently. Now that she'd had a full night for her thoughts to marinate and the fire in her loins had been sated, she needed to resolve the situation she'd found herself. She'd gone from zero lovers less than a week ago to five, a staggering multiplication she'd hardly had time to come to grips with. And already these various lovers were coming to blows out of desire to spend time with her. It was a less pitiable problem than her previous forced chastity, but she didn't want to make anyone happy. But how much more can one folk do? Not much, she admitted wistfully. And that's when an insane idea popped into her head. For several minutes she lay perfectly still, chest and legs pressed up against Emma's, almost hoping the vixen would wake up and remove any chance Flora had of exploring this idea of hers. After all the bed was quite warm, and there's no chance Flora got a full night's sleep. But finally she gathered up the willpower to extricate herself from the covers. She needed to resolve this soon as possible, for everyone's sake. Hoping Emma didn't mind if she borrowed some clothes (her robe was in dire need of cleaning), Flora slipped on a skirt and blouse, blushing somewhat at how feminine her outfit was. Emma was definitely more girly than Flora, she didn't own a single pair of jeans or a T-shirt. Flora slipped into the hallway and quickly retraced her steps to the part of the labs where Taga lived. Quickly she located the elder rat, who had indeed made good on his promise and decorated the walls with slips of white paper. The man was sitting in a meditative stance, and cracked one eye open. "Hi. You're...awake early," Flora remarked politely, smiling awkwardly. "I'm meditating. And you're interrupting," he answered simply, reclosing his eye. "I'm sorry about that. If you want--" Flora started, but the man cut her off. "No, its too late. Meditation is like a souffle; interrupt it before it's finished and it'll deflate before your eyes." The man got to his feet. "But I'll forgive you if you've brought me another gift." "To, uhhhh, duplicate?" Flora gulped. "I might have. But I wanted to know a bit more about it first." The man frowned. "I am not an exhibit on a guided tour!" he protested, folding his arms. Flora sighed and fished around the pockets in her blouse. Locating a spare button sewn into the hem of the skirt, she pinched it off with her claws and passed it over. "I just want to get to know you a little. What's your name?" "Marly," he replied eagerly, snatching the button and turning it into a short stack within a millisecond. "And Marly, is there a limit to what you can duplicate? What happens to the original?" she asked. "Duplicated items shouldn't stay apart for long," Marly replied, spreading his arms around his relatively barren cell. "Else I'd have decorated this place a hundred times over. I always re-merge everything before 24 hours pass. I can always tell which is the original." To demonstrate he selected a specific button and used it to flip the others along the ground like a game of tiddlywinks. "Have you ever duplicated a living person?" Flora asked, mouth going slightly dry. "Oh, of course. I used to charge people for the privileged." Marly flipped a button into the washbasin. "Got a little too successful, that's how I wound up here." "What used to happen to those people?" Flora urged. Marly began to detect the urgency in her voice and cocked an eyebrow. "Something tells me this isn't just innocent curiosity." Flora shifted her feet. "Those days are behind me, I assure you. But to answer your question; there were no complications, most of them loved it and I re-merged each of them within 24 hours. I got a little bit richer, they walked away happy, and I never asked questions." "Please do that to me!" Flora burst out. "I need to be in two places at once! My friends are counting on me!" "Girl, don't be daft." Marly duplicated a new set of buttons due to flipping all his old ones into the basin. "Management would know it was me in a heartbeat. I could get in a lot of trouble." "I'd stay away from myself," Flora urged him. "And I'll bring you a new trinket every time. Both of me would! You can even make requests!" Marly chuckled and shook his head. "I desire no particular items more than anything else," he assured her. "If you're hoping to sweet-talk me into this, it won't work. And have you considered not splitting apart your very essence just for the benefit of other people? Surely you don't me to tell you that's a bad idea." "There must be something you need," Flora pleaded. "Something you'd never told anyone. This is your chance. I'll help you. We can help each other." Marly paused. "You're making a mistake," he grumbled. "But there is something you can do for me." He held his hand out. "Deliver a message from me to Taga. Don't tell her it's from me." Flora stuck her hand through the bars. "Deal!" She expected Marly to shake it, but instead he tapped her palm lightly, and suddenly there was a blinding flash of light. Flora grunted and covered her eyes, and when she looked again she was staring right into her own eyes. Another fully-fledged Flora, dressed in the same blouse and skirt. "Oh my god!" Both Floras gasped. Marly nodded approvingly. "Damn, that was a good one. I surprise myself sometimes, even got all the clothes right." "Wait--" said both Floras, planning to ask who was the original, but then both broke off when they interrupted each other. Both looked at Marly, then at each other, then their jaws dropped open as they realized they were sharing identical thoughts. Marly chuckled. "Here. Let's get some talking turns down. It'll settle out after that." He held his button up. "Smooth side up, lefty talks first, bumpy side up, righty. capiche?" He flipped the button. All three watched as it landed. "So I get to talk first?" one of them said. "Wait, I thought I was left," the other protested. "Then why didn't you talk first?" the first asked. "Cause you're in the way so I couldn't tell what side the button landed!" "Ladies," interrupted Marly. "You're welcome. The less time you spend together the better the memories will be, trust me. And you've got a deal to follow through on." He glanced at left Flora. "You leave first. Go do your things. Other one, you can leave in like fifteen minutes, after delivering my message. Meet back up here by tonight and I'll rejoin you and put this all behind us." Both Floras nodded, and the chosen one headed back up the hallway. Returning to Emma's room, Flora removed her clothes, put them neatly back in the drawer, and resumed her spooning of Emma. I hope other me has fun with Yurei today... * * * * * Meanwhile, the other Flora walked over to Taga to see if she was awake. "Hello?" she said softly. It was far darker at this end of the cellblock, and Flora couldn't even tell where the older woman was, or if she was awake. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on May 25 2016, 08:31 PM

As Flora approached her cell, Taga's eyes lit up from the corner. "Ah, it's you again, Flora. Or... Should I say doppelganger of Flora?" She chuckled, gliding her way up to the glass with a smirk. "What brings you to visit little old me today, hmm?" _____ Down in the maintenance tunnels, Yurei slowly cracked one eye open, glancing around for a moment before getting up, checking to make sure that the bloodstains from the previous night weren't too obvious. Finally satisfied nobody would notice them, he slipped over to the elevator, phasing into it and riding it up to the floor his room was on. Once inside his room, he quickly made his way over to the bathroom, pulling out a set of long bandages and some antiseptic, which he quickly used to clean the set of cuts along both his arms. Wrapping both arms from mid-forearm down in the bandages, he nodded a bit, heading to his room to grab a change of clothes. Flicking through his closet, he picked a red and black version of his outfit, slipping into it and nodding a bit as he made his way back out the door and towards the elevator...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Hey!" protested Flora. "What's that supposed to mean? I'm still Flora, the other one's the duplicate!" She balled her fists, then realized she was disrespecting her elder. "Sorry, sorry..." she amended hastily. "How'd you even know I was split? And, uh, I've got a message for you. From a...secret admirer. They say, 'Hi Taga. How are you doing?'"

Taga chuckled lightly, grinning at the folf. "Oh, it's as simple as your emotions, dearie. They're ever-so-slightly different than when you're whole." She said, humming a bit as Flora delivered the message. "Hmm, oh is that so? Who'd have thought a little old spinster like me could have an admirer. You tell him that I'm doing well, and I hope he is, too." She said, a faint blush on her cheeks. "Oh, and Flora? Don't worry. Yu will never be able to tell the difference." She added teasingly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora committed Taga's reply message to memory. "You know I'm doing this for Yurei, right? He doesn't like how I'm spending time with other people, so now he'll have a Flora all to himself." Her eyes clouded. "You told me to help him, I'm a bit worried for him. Maybe he just needs someone who can literally give him constant attention."

StarfallRaptor

Taga shook her head. "Oh, dear. You should never do something for the sake of someone else. And I dare say you misread Yu. He's not the type for anger or possessiveness. Most likely, he was trying to avoid causing you trouble, and running scared because of it." She said gently, shaking her head softly.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Maybe..." replied Flora, not wholly convinced. Taga hadn't seen him last night. "Well, I'm off to see him now, so we'll see what happens. I've only got a bit before I get merged back, so I'll talk to you later." She returned to Marly on the other side of the cellblock. "She says, uh, she's doing well, and hopes you are too." Marly smiled dreamily from behind tiny stacks of buttons. "Thankye, lass. That'll be all, I'm sure you've stuff to do." Flora quickly hurried to the upper levels. She was thinking of what Taga said. "You should never do something for the sake of someone else..." Well that can't be a hard and fast rule, otherwise nobody would ever help each other. She was convinced she was still doing the right thing. Checking with the receptionist, she learned the location of Yurei's room and quickly darted over to it. She bit her lip. It was almost 6am, he was probably asleep. She knocked anyway. She was pretty tired herself, maybe he'd be down to sleep together. emma by this point was awake and making herself breakfast. she figured that flora had left to get some more tests run on her. her mind ran back repeatedly to the night before, all the passion and kissing the pair had shared. Emma had pinch herself a few times to be sure she hadn't dreamed it. ' the toaster popped up the bread she had been toasting breaking her out of her reverie.- marita stirred from her bed, which she had shared with rose. the pair had shared a few deep good bright kisses the night before and waking up next to Rose was the feeling that always left Marita feeling happy about herself.- rose was flipping through the channels on the tv, looking for something other than promos for the testing lab or various programs in arabic. Marie was looking through her knapsack, deciding which attire to wear that day.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora was shocked when she opened the door and found Emma making breakfast. "You wake up at 6am?" she exclaimed. Her mind started spinning, trying to come up with a justification for her being awake this early. "Err, how did you sleep? Good morning!"

Nick22

morning. i'm normally an easy riser. comes with your school day starting at 7 am, and living a half hour away from it. so i had to get up at 6 and that habit became engrained, and even now i wake up around 6. how did the tests go? Emma asked. ' i mean i'm assuming you are up this early because of one examination or another.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Oh, yeah, the...uh, circulatory test went well!" Flora stammered. "Everything's normal. You got school, huh? That sounds cool. What classes do you have today?" She knew what Emma actually meant by her school comment, but it would distract Emma to have to supply a correction. Flora suddenly realized she was still wearing Emma's blouse and skirt. "Er, sorry for borrowing your clothes. I didn't bring a change of my own from last night." Grabbing a bowl from the cupboard, she poured herself a bowl of cereal; she'll reimburse Emma soon, but right now she was really hungry. i dont have class. i'm saving up to go to college remember" emma replied.' so, why dont we go hang out with your other girlfriends so more today? Get to know them better at least." Emma said. ' she laughed as she saw the clothes Flora was wearing ' so thats where they went. eh, keep it. I can get more clothes once my paycheck comes in tomorrow ' Emma said.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Sounds good to me. Maybe they'll be interested in going swimming!" Flora finished her cereal and washed the dishes in the sink, including the ones that were there previously; washing the host's dishes is one of the ways a guest can show appreciation for their hospitality. "Yesterday's adventure in the desert has made me miss the water even more than before!"

StarfallRaptor

Yurei's ears flicked as he heard the knock on his door. Who could that be...? Not like anyone knows my room number... Or cares...He thought to himself, getting up off his couch and making his way over to the door, peeping out to see Flora. He mentally panicked for a second, quickly straightening his clothes before opening the door."Oh, uh... Hey, Flora."He said softly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora smiled nervously. "Hi Yurei!" she smiled. "How you doing? I know it's super early, but I just wanted to say thanks for the wonderful trip into town last night. We're you still interested in showing me the red light district later today? Cause I'm totally down!"She shifted her feet, wondering if he was going to invite her in or simply answer her question and politely close the door. She'd left his options open so as not to intrude on his privacy.

StarfallRaptor

Yu chuckled slightly, smiling a bit."Oh, uh...Heh, you're welcome. I mean, I'm glad you enjoyed it. And uh... If you still want to, sure thing. I mean... I'd love to show you it, then."He said, grinning shyly at her as he stepped aside."D'you wanna maybe come in? It's pretty early, and I could maybe make something to eat or whatever..."He chuckled a bit nervously...

Nick22

well, i'll definitely be up for swimming ' emma said ' i mean the place here has a pool,. but you only get 30 minutes at a time, and you cant undress while in the pool. we'd need a private pool for that." emma said giving flora a glance. ' i had a wonderful time last night , by the way.i hope you enjoyed it as much as i did.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora breathed a sigh of relief and accepted Yurei's offer. "Not gonna lie, had a tough time sleeping last night," she yawned as she stepped into his room. "Which is why I finally said screw it and came down here. Hope you weren't asleep or anything."She glanced around his room. "Wow, it's...a lot neater than I expected, not gonna lie." she noted approvingly. "I've been in my room less than a day and it already looks worse than yours."-----Flora smiled and wrapped her arms around Emma. "Last night was awesome," she replied, kissing Emma lightly. "It made me so happy, and I can't wait for it to happen again." She smiled. "As for swimming, guess I'll have to purchase a bathing suit. Bikini bottoms are kinda revealing for me, I might have to rock a Speedo and hope I don't look too silly."She glanced at Emma's wardrobe. "Unless you've got bathing suits for me to borrow. If you do, would you be okay with my trying them on and seeing if they fit me?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jun 2 2016, 06:18 PM

Yu smiled awkwardly, giving a small nonchalant shrug. "Well, heh... what can I say, guess I'm a bit of a neat freak, I guess." He chuckled, quickly hiding his wrists behind his back. "So, uh...sorry about last night. I was... It's a long story. And uh...Nah. I tend not to sleep a lot." He stammered a bit...

Nick22

i think i have a few bathing suits ' Emma said. ' try them out see if any fit. they're in the bottom drawer there ' Emma said. "If none fit well, you'll have to go out and buy a couple. Say do you have any of the girls numbers? I'd like to talk to them about that pool idea"

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Yup!" Flora recited Marita's number as she she'd her clothes and examined Emma's selection of bikinis. Finally deciding on a nice black one, she donned it and presented herself to Emma. "What do you think? I know the crotch is a little...bit of a bulge, but it's not too noticeable, is it?"-----Flora placed her hand softly on his. "Hey, calm down," she smiled, "I don't mind. We all have our off-days, and this is really new for me too. I'm going to work on showing more concern for your feelings, so that won't happen again." She sat down on his bed. "Today is Yurei today. I've got a completely free calendar and I'm ready to do whatever you want, go anywhere, try anything..."

StarfallRaptor

Yu sat down next to her, smiling a bit. "A day with you all to myself, huh? That sounds... Nice." He said gently, before smiling coyly and pulling Flora down onto the bed with a smirk "Always wanted to do this~" He teased...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Hey!" Flora giggled as Yurei pulled her onto the bed. "Always wanted to, huh?" she said jokingly. "You mean since we met for the first time 24 hours ago, silly?" She warmly snuggled him back; she'd been in desperate need of cuddles since she and Emma were too tired to have any after their marathon sex session last night.

StarfallRaptor

Yu smiled, lightly nuzzling into Flora's neck. "Well, you ARE the most beautiful girl I've ever met, you know." He teased, holding her close and murring softly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora giggled and gave him a light kiss. "You're flattering me!" she gave him a light kiss. "I'm not sure I even qualify as a girl, you've seen what I'm packing. Don't let the skirt fool you!" Said skirt wasn't doing a great job hiding her excitement, and she wondered if she should remove them before anything untoward happened; they weren't her clothes after all. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jun 5 2016, 06:25 PM

StarfallRaptor

Yurei smirked, rubbing his hand along Flora's chest."Oh, I never flatter. Just tell it like it is."He chuckled, his other hand rubbing just above her crotch."And I still think you're a girl. Just packing a bit extra is all~."He teased lightly, nuzzling along her neck affectionately...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Well, I'm glad you can see me as a girl even without my skirt," Flora's eyes lit up and she started heavily petting him back. She was extremely relieved to see he was so congenial; he seemed to have completely forgotten about last night. Pushing her advantage, she attempted to slide her hand into his pants. "Cause if I'm reading the signs right, I might slip out of these clothes soon enough so we don't make a mess on them."She massaged his crotch. "Or maybe I'll keep them on. You're in charge today." Her eyes twinkled. "It's all up to your desires, oh captain..."

StarfallRaptor

Yu smirked and traced a hand along her body appreciatively."Mmm, feel free to slip out of those, lovely~.". He teased, nipping her neck lightly as he ground against her...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Your wish is my command!" Flora excitedly slipped her clothes off and pinned him underneath her. "Gonna meet me halfway?" Sliding her hands lightly under his shirt, she traced her fingers across his chest. "I like to see your body too you know..."-----
Flora gave Marita a call. "Good morning! We were thinking of going swimming at the pool! You interested in meeting us there?" This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jun 6 2016, 05:00 PM

Nick22

Sue Flora! That sounds like a lovely idea. we'll bring our bathing suits, and a light light, so we can nosh on something, inbetween laps in the pool. i hope this place has a hot tub' Marita Replied." why dont we meet in, say 30 minutes?'_ No you're fine. i dont ever notice the bulge that much ' Emma said earnestly

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Sounds good! Can't wait!" Flora hung up on Marita. "I'm going to head down and reserve our spot!" She told Emma, grabbing a towel from the bathroom rack. "Want to make sure we can get in, will probably also buy my own bathing suit from the shops so I don't have to keep borrowing yours." Emma's hips and curves were so much larger than Flora's that the bikini was barely staying on. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jun 11 2016, 08:24 PM

Nick22

' we'll need to get you some clothes that actually fit ' Emma smiled.' your breasts are three sizes smaller than mine at least.' and overall you aren't as curvy as I am."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

The pool was indoors, a large white-walled rectangle that smelled strongly of chlorine. A Jacuzzi sat in a raised portion of the room, and a sign next to the empty lifeguard tower noted that the lifeguard came on duty at 10:00, an hour from now. Flora knelt beside the deep end and nodded approvingly at the water's temperature. The pool was cold but not chilled, perfect for this sweltering desert environment. She resisted the urge to dive in immediately; she said she'd wait for Emma, Marita and the other girls to arrive. So instead she sat in the corner, watching the ripples and munching on a Pop-Tart from the vending machine. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jun 20 2016, 08:22 PM

Yu blushed a bit, shyly licking his lips as he traced down Flora's sides."Oh, do you now? Well, then, I guess it would be rude of me to say no~"He teased lightly, lifting his shirt slowly...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora licked her lips hungrily, pressing her breasts up against his waist and sliding over him daintily. "You're so muscular..." she purred. Yurei's chiseled form was such a refreshing change from all the soft-skinned girls. "I'm so excited to be in bed with a real man," her eyes glinted. "I want you to take control of me, have your way with me." Her hand slid into his pants. "Make me your plaything..." Suddenly she noticed the massive bandages on his wrists and let out an involuntary peep. "Oh my god, are you okay? What happened?" she gasped. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jun 23 2016, 04:58 AM

Nick22

Emma came up to her a few minutes later wearing a pink bathing suit." Ah, you beat me down here, I was going to get us both breakfast before the girls joined us, she said taking a seat beside Flora and dipping her toes in the water.. say.." She grinned, since no one else is around, you want to go into the jacuzzi?_ rose came up to them carrying a box of doughnuts which she had bought at a local shop which catered to the clinic. " Morning Girls. I got doughnuts " She opened the box revealing 24 doughnuts with a variety of toppings and fillings. Take whatever you like, Just don't eat the jelly-filled ones. this are Mine" the Great Dane grinned. marita went into the Jacuzzi and turned it on, and bubbles began to fill the hot tub.

StarfallRaptor

Yu looked away as Flora noticed the bandages on his wrists, fidgeting slightly."I-it's...I um...It's nothing...just..."He shook his head, leaning in to kiss her softly, pulling her close

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora still worried, but acquiescently embraced him and buried her tongue in his mouth. Massaging his chest, she couldn't keep the anxious thoughts rushing through her mind. Both wrists...it could have been an accident. But he's not acting like it... She unbuttoned his pants and hurriedly massaged his crotch. I need to make sure he's happy...if I give him the most mindblowing sex possible, he'll be better... Sliding her body along his chest, she flashed him a coy smile. "You know, nobody's ever taken my...um...'penetrative' virginity, if you know what I mean...if you've got any lube, I'd love for you to do the honors...right now..."

StarfallRaptor

Yurei smirked, grinding against Flora's hand a bit as he stroked along her back."Oh, is that so? Sure you wanna give something that important to me?"He teased, moaning softly as he quickly flipped himself and Flora over, lightly kissing at the back of her neck as he reached over to one of his bedside tables...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"I want to...because you're worth it, Yurei." Flora gritted her teeth in anticipation, for once wishing his junk was a little bit smaller. "Just...try to be gentle..." She propped herself on her elbows and knees, fully presenting her hindquarters to him. At least she knew he was STD-free; before coming to his room, she'd had the labs test both her blood and his semen stains on her robe. It was pretty embarrassing, but worth it. Otherwise, there's no way she'd be allowing him to bareback her, especially this early in their relationship. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jun 27 2016, 02:08 PM

StarfallRaptor

Yu smiled softly, lightly tracing his hand along Flora's hips. "Oh, don't you worry about that, Flora. After all, since you're going to give me something so important, I plan to make it special for you, too..."He said, slyly trailing kisses along her back as he stroked up to her crotch...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora shuddered as Yurei stimulated her sensitive nether regions. For her part, she was trying to get some sort of stretching preparation by tightening and relaxing her sphincter, but she doubted it would help. Maybe I should have prepared a bit before jumping into this, she worried, but her only choice now was to trust Yurei. "J-just take it slow, at first, please..."

StarfallRaptor

Yu chuckled softly, placing a teasing kiss just at the base of Flora's tail, smiling softly."Oh, I promise I will, Flora. I wouldn't dream of hurting you."He said reassuringly, slowly nuzzling down to her butt with a soft murr...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora peeped in surprise. "Wait, did you just...? Are you going to...?" she squealed in surprise. "Nobody's ever done that to me before either..." Nonetheless she found herself relaxing and giggling at how his nose and snout fur tickled. "Guess today is a lot of firsts for me..."

StarfallRaptor

Yurei chuckled softly, placing a soft, affectionate kiss on Flora's pucker with a soft purr. "Well, I want to make sure this experience is wonderful for you. You're a goddess, and you deserve nothing but the best." He said gently, blushing and taking a few deep breaths of Flora's scent...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's mind was whirling. Is he actually gonna give a rimjob? Maybe I'm reading the signs wrong. She had no idea that somebody could want to do that, but part of her had always secretly wanted to experience one. "Do you...want me to clean it out first or anything?" she asked, just to be safe. Even if she's overthinking how far he plans to go, it's a valid question even for anal.-----"Awesome!" Flora grabbed a chocolate-frosted donut excitedly. "I'm going to take a quick dip in the actual pool first, then let's jacuzzi!" Considering her goal was to cool off after spending so much time in the sweltering desert environment, she wanted at least to soak her body in the refreshing cold water. After finishing her donut, she took to the deep end with a hypocritical "Remember not to swim right after you eat, Emma!" Taking the diving board at full bounce, Flora careened through the air at a speed that surprised even herself. The elasticity of the board sent her arching dangerously into the middle of the pool, which was luckily still deep enough that she decelerated before hitting the floor, though it was close. She came up gasping for air. "Cripes! Careful with that board, it's scary springy." Swimming for the ladder, she was halfway there when she realized her breasts felt a little...free. "Aah!" she gasped when she realized Emma's over-sized bikini top had completely slipped off her from the dive. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jun 28 2016, 12:41 AM

StarfallRaptor

Yurei grinned, his tongue flicking lightly along her crack. "Mmmm, you're fine just how you are, Flora. Every..Single...bit of you is absolutely perfect." He said reassuringly, punctuating the last bit with slow, circling licks around her entrance...

Nick22

Emma laughed as the bathing suit floated near her. "Well, girl we are definitely going shopping after this. you need an outfit of your own. mine..arent going to the job, clearly. just get out and head to the jacuzzi. the bubbles will cover your tits for now. _marita and turned on the 'rainbow bubbles' feature, which covered the jacuzzi with a variety of colors. Rose set down the box of doughnuts on a bench and climbed into the hot tub opposite Marita.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora peeped quietly, her brain having trouble handling the sensations. Unlike most of the other sexual activities she'd tried in the past few days, she had never really given much thought to this one, so she had no fantasies to compare it to, and so far it wasn't comparing to anything she'd felt before. It felt oddly uncomfortable, far more taboo than her past relatively vanilla activities, but it felt like that feeling of doing something forbidden was part of the allure.-----"Guess it's nothing you girls haven't seen before," Flora grinned, slipping out of her bikini and into the jacuzzi. Keeping her hands outside the water so she could have a second donut soon, Flora directed her attention to Emma. "Hey, you should tell the girls a little about yourself. You haven't really had a chance to meet them without distractions like Yurei's tour." For her part, Flora planned to keep silent for a bit, let her girlfriends talk among themselves and get to know each other better. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jul 4 2016, 09:45 PM

Nick22

Well, I guess i start talking with Marita first I suppose. you're are the eldest, right? Emma asked ' Yeah, by a year.' Marita said " but no need to start talking about your backstory until we are all in, and the bubbles are flowing ' Marita said motioning at the pool.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

As the girls left the pool area Flora ironed a kink out of the small of her back and grabbed the final donut out of the box. "Looks like I got a blood test coming up," she commented, glancing at her phone, "It'll only be a minute. Emma, are there any cool locations or events happening at Sartonic we should check out today? I'm feeling explore-y." This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Jul 10 2016, 02:24 PM well, theres the Blueberry festival which is.. um..in ' the garden sector of the grounds.. I have a map.. but i left it in my room ' emma said.

Nick22

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's blood test went well, and thirty minutes later she emerged with a smile on her face. "This place has a garden? Let's do it!" She glanced at the map. "Oooh, a rooftop garden? How do they even keep that going in this climate? Let's go!"

Nick22

Lots and lots of water I take it' Marita said as they began walking towards the garden which was on the 12th floor of a building, which sold earrings and other jewelry which was too expensive for the girls, so they could only look. Emma made her way to the stairs, as Marie looked longingly at a jade necklace.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora led the way to the elevator and hit the highest button. "Huh. This only goes up to the 12th floor. Guess we'll need to take the stairs to the roof," she commented. She glanced at Emma. "What sort of thing happens at a blueberry festival? Is it all about fruit or what?"

Nick22

Well, theres all sorts of things made of blueberries- jam, pies, sauces, and so on.. but theres more there than just blueberries, theres other festivals there, we just came during the blueberry festival" emma said with a smile as the group headed towards the stairs.

StarfallRaptor

Yu murred teasingly, stroking Flora lightly."Mmmm, my goodness do you make cute noises~. Wonder what would happen if I..."He trailed off, placing a slow, deep kiss right on her butt, tongue slipping into her a bit with a low murr...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora squealed shamelessly. It felt so...wrong, what Yurei was doing, but it also felt so good. She yelped in surprise as he probed deeper. She couldn't keep a furious blush off her face; it was embarrassing being so exposed to someone in such an intimate and taboo way. She didn't dare to talk, not sure what she could say. Instead she just curled her toes and closed her eyes, surrendering her other senses and focusing on the indescribable feelings Yurei was causing her to feel. -----The rooftop garden festival was relatively subdued, due to it being midday; Flora suspected that as it got later and the desert cooled down, the festival would grow more active. On the bright side this meant they had almost unrestricted access to all the events and stalls, which were mostly showing off exotic treats like fruits, seeds, and delicacies. Flora gasped in wonder at a speckled orange-purple fruit. "What's a...pluot?" she said curiously, reading the sign. "It's a genetically-crossbred fruit!" the man exclaimed. His labcoat suggested her normally worked as a scientist at Sartonic. "It's a hybrid plum-apricot, first created genetically back in the early 21st century. Only recently have we created fertile self-sufficient orchards.""It's...a hybrid?" Flora grabbed a pluot and studied it. "Like me..." she bit into it and her eyes lit up. "I think this is my new favorite fruit!" she exclaimed, causing the shopkeeper to chuckle. "How have I never heard of these before?"

Nick22

because its a rare hybrid, and we don't have it back home ' Marie said, as she looked around at the various foods and plants, many of them strange-looking hybrids.' marita loked in her purses for some creds, but was only able to scrounge up about 50.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora squealed instinctively as Yurei continued pleasuring her. It wasn't a sexual activity that felt like it could end in orgasm, more of an experience to enjoy as she lost track of time. But as her fur became matted with sweat, she began to worry that her sphincter might get overstimulated and too sensitive for what comes next. "...think it's ready..." she murmured back to Yurei, casting an excited look over her shoulder. Her muscles felt loose, and despite his girth she felt like he'd more than prepared her for the upcoming penetration. "I don't want to cum, I think it'll be better if I'm still horny when you stick it in. Just please apply lube, and then it's all yours..."-----Flora took another pluot for the walk and continued observing all the events of the festival. "Okay, I picked the pluot stand, your turn to choose an activity!" she said to Emma, throwing her arms around the vixen playfully. The pluots had put her in a particularly good mood.

Nick22

Well we could go over to that fruit weighing stand ' Emma said motioning to a table with an array of simply gigantixcc fruits. each one looked like they weighed at least 500 pounds- thats a lot of pies." waterberries? Marie asked skeptically as she read ' a micing of watermelon and strawberries..

StarfallRaptor

Yurei smirked lightly, pulling his tongue out and lightly nuzzling up Flora's back, grinning."Mmm, well then, I'll try to make you cum too~."He said lightly, placing a soft lick along the base of her ear as he reached over to the nightstand and pulled out a small bottle of lube, spreading the cool gel over Flora's butt...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora's heartrate quickened, and she prepared herself for the moment of entry. "Don't worry about me," she panted, "this is your reward. You can get me off after you've had your turn..."-----"I wanna try a waterberry!" Flora exclaimed, stepping forward, but the booth owner stopped her."These are for the weighing contest. they are not for consumption.""Do you have any that ARE?" Flora asked, eyeing the alien fruit with relish."They have been mostly made into pies," the man gestured to the table. "150 credits apiece."Flora looked at her friends. "What do you think? kinda a bummer we can't try them first to be sure we even like them..."

Nick22

the pies were huge, but emma pulled out her creds card ' we'll take 2' she said to the stall owner ' and he produced 2 big pies after the creds transfer went though ' Marita was handed the pies to carry and the girls continued walking around, looking at other stalls.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora wrinkled her nose after a single bite. She'd never been a watermelon fan, and unfortunately waterberries didn't have enough strawberry to cancel out the flavor. A few hours later, they'd seen everything there was to see at the festival. Flora was feeling a little drunk from the number of booths offering alcoholic samples. "Thank god for--hic!--the drinking age being sixteen!" She grinned as she found somewhere to sit down. "This festival was awesome. I wonder how late it is, maybe we could go do something out on the town."

Nick22

its 915" emma said loking at her watch " we could try going around some more, or head back. Up to you Flora.' We're fine with doing a bit more shopping " rose said, and she wrapped the remaining pie for later. " Depends on whats open at this point."

StarfallRaptor

Yurei smiled a bit, leaning in to teasingly lick along the base of Flora's ear."Mmmm, now now. I want this to be a reward for both of us, sweetheart. After all, someone as lovely as you deserves nothing less~"He teased, slowly pressing his tip into her as he reached around to stroke down her chest...

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Yurei, I'm glad you're thinking of me, but it's been..." Flora checked the time on his bedside alarm clock, "...almost three hours, and you haven't even stuck it in yet. I mean, if you're nervous, I don't want to pressure you into anything, but really, I think my body is as primed as it could possibly ever be."-----Flora yawned as they left the festival. "I dunno, I might be tuckered out." She also didn't want to possibly see her other self with Yurei in the city streets. "Maybe we should head back to the room. See if there's any good movies on TV. Our bed can fit five, right?"

Nick22

Sure It can fit 5, just don't expect much personal space " MArIE said . Emma, as our guest, can have first crack at the remote. First hour is yours " she smiled at the teenage vixen, who smiled back at her.. " i like shows that show off clothing emma sauid " I watch them and imagine myself wearing them.. course its just a dream..

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Flora led the girls back to her apartment. "Bed party! Get cozy everybody!" She tossed Emma the remote. "Also hope y'all don't mind, but I'm done being dressed in this desert heat." Peeling her clothes off, she took the spot dead center on the bed.

Nick22

" taking the best seat for yourself, eh?' Rose smirked, as she climbed onto the left side of the side. Emma climbed in, next to her, Leaving Marie and Marita to take up the right side. " i'll pass the remote down once I'm done" Emma said, Smirking at Floras bare form. " Couldn't wait to drop trou Flora? Well you've certainly got self-confidence.."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Mmmm, why would I want clothes when I'm surrounded by a bunch of gorgeous girlfriends?" Flora snuggled into the little spoon position, pressed somewhere between Emma and Rose. "Cause nobody gets to date me unless they're okay with heavy cuddles..."

Nick22

Emma Smirked " so this is the "wild side " the girls told me about.. She said as she wrapped her arm around Flora, and Rose reached behind Flora and Pulled Emma Closer." Well Flora does have good taste Rose said " she found you, Emma , after all." I take it Flora's not the only one interested in me, then?' emma said, and a smile played on Rose's dark red lips. " OF Course not Love. I don't french girls that don't like frenching other girls, although truthfully Girls tend to be more open to same -sex relationships up through high school graduation than guys - "Gay until graduation" is a real thing" Rose said " with me, I really didnt realize I was gay until I started dating Marita, once we were in a relationship , it just.. felt right, you know?" Well, Flora was my first kiss ever, and you girls are numbers 2 through 4. I'm glad you girls have been so welcoming and accepting " Emma Said." Who's next with the remote after you? Rose asked "That would be Flora " rose said. "Well emma, I think you and I will be busy during your hour with the remote." Rose said" oh, Flora and I have had sex before, so you wont be the first girl i've made love to" emma said shooting Flora a grin " But I've got a LOT more experience in making love than she does " Rose said."Once you've had a whiff of my flower, dear Emma, you'll want more."

LettuceBacon&Tomato

Considering Rose and Emma were laying it on thick but had both elected to sit on either side of her, Flora suspected her body was about to be used as a sexual prop, like what happened with Rose and Marita in the hotel room. Well, there are worse fates...stretching her back and purring, she simply continued cuddling Emma, too content to worry about what was on the television or going through her bedmates' minds.

Nick22

Care to join us Flora?' Emma Said to her" don't want to leave you out girl" She said honestly.." i mean it.' shhe said muzzling Flora Warmly and Giving her a hug. I'll go get some popcorn girls ' Marita said as she got out of the bed. " any partocular flavor ypu girls wanmt?

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Don't worry about me," Flora yawned. "Been a busy day, and besides, this is a good time for you to get to know each other better." She snuggled closer. "That being said, I'm not getting out of the way so I hope you're okay with me making myself comfortable on the bed..."

Nick22

oh, you're fine right where you are, and no, this time you won;t be a prop for a makeout' Rose said as she stroked Flora's fur.." What sort of shampoo do you use flora? Whatever it is, you need to let me use it, I have split hairs all over, but you dont have a split hair anywhere on your head>' she asked._ Might just be the difference between foxes and dogs ' emma said ' Foxes dont have split hairs very often.' she explained.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

"Recently? I use whatever the hotels have in the little bottles." Flora nuzzled Emma. She was rapidly falling asleep, but wanted to at least stay awake long enough to ensure Rose and Emma got along without issue. -----Other Flora was falling asleep. Her face and chest were slumped into the blanket and a thin bead of drool was dribbling onto the covers as her butt remained shoved invitingly in the air. This post has been edited by LettuceBacon&Tomato on Nov 9 2016, 12:16 AM

Nick22

Oh, so Just a regular shampoo then/ that keeps it simple " emmsa Said and she kissed Flora passionately on the lips, throwing her arms around the folks neck. Emmaslipped her tongue into Floras mouth and murmured happily in the process. Rose watched the makeout with interest.

LettuceBacon&Tomato

By miraculous coincidence, both Floras fell asleep at the same time.
